the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for they of Ham had dwelt there of old.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was pasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

43 And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

CHAPTER V.

1 The line of Reuben (who lost his birthright) unto the captivity. 9 Their habitation and conquest of the Hagarites. 11 The chief men and habitations of Gad. 18 The number and conquest of Reuben, Gad, and the half of Manasseh. 23 The habitations and chief men of that half tribe. 25 Their captivity for their sin.

NOW the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:)

3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, 5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pileser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Joel, and Zechariah.

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Saleah:

12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Iieber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huiri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz:

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they put their trust in him.

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steeds until the captivity.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, 37 And Moza begat Binea: ⁱRapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

38 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were, Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

40 And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these are of the sons of Benjamin.

3 And in ^dJerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh;

5 And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; ¶ very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hushub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hushabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were, Shalum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shalum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And ¶ Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom ¶ David and Samuel the seer ¶ did ordain in their ¶ set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their ¶ set office, and were over the ¶ chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 ¶ And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should ¶ bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the ¶ instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

CHAPTER X.

1 Saul's overthrow and death. 8 The Philistines triumph over Saul. 11 The kindness of Jabesh-gilead toward Saul and his sons. 13 Saul's sin, for which the kingdom was translated from him to David.

NOW the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 ¶ And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it;

14 And inquired not of the LORD:
therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER XI.

1 David by a general consent is made king at Hebron. 4 He winneth the castle of Zion from the Jebusites by Jonab's valour.
10 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

THEN all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus: where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither.
Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Milo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Ja-shobeam, a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Pas-dam-min, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the Lord.

miah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai
the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: || one of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we,
David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers: for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zithai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred:

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand:
for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking:
for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were with them, even unto Issachar and Zebu-lun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes

CHAPTER XIII.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed edom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, I let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubim, whose name is called on it.

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Hiram's kindness to David. 2 David's felicity in people, wives, and children. 3 His two victories against the Philistines.

NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhur, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up: for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim: and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari: Assiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Assiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab.

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed He-man the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, He-man, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass:

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

SO they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jehiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jehiel † with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered ^{first this psalm} to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 ¶ Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth:

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, † the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but † few, † even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people:

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he ^{reproved} kings for their sakes, 22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth: shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen: his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

27 Glory and honour are in his presence: strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 ^m And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 ⁿ Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Heman to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, ^p before the tabernacle of the LORD ^q in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually: ^r morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel:

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, ^s because his mercy endureth for ever:

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were ^t porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David, to build God a house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him. 11 He promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 18 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

a 2 Sam. 7. 1.
&c.

NOW ^ait came to pass, as David ^asat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but [†]I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Whersoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even [†]from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning.

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the LORD will build thee a house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

b 2 Sam. 7. 14.

13 ^b My son will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

c Luke 1. 33.

14 But ^cI will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever:

and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even ⁿGod to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, [†]hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

† Heb. hast revealed the ear of thy servant.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now therefore ¶ let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

† Or, it hath pleased thee.

5 And when the Syrians of † Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from ¶ Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ^cSolomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 David's messengers, sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villainously treated. 6 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW ^ait came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served; and he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves † odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-machab, ^band out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Machab and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that † the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the ¶ choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David: and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured.

4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrowes of the Philistines.

AND it came to pass, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jaïr slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 David, tempted by Satan, soreth Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three repentances propounded by Gad chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshingfloor: where having built an altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 23 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the angel.

AND Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan: and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people a hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, fit was in my mind to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom, and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 ¶ Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 ¶ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God;

arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

1 David in his old age maketh Solomon king. 2 The number and distribution of the Levites. 7 The families of the Gershonites. 12 The sons of Kohath. 21 The sons of Merari. 24 The office of the Levites.

SO when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith.

6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the Gershonites were Laadan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram; Aaron, and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were, Gershom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibr.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, ^kwho had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

MOREOVER David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of ^aAsaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and ^{||}Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied [†]according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and ^{||}Zeri, and Jeshaiah, ^{||}Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, ^{||}six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, ^{||}Uzziel, ^{||}Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the ^{||}words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, ^baccording to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 [†]And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, ^cthe teacher as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jeshaiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

17 The tenth to Shimel, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

18 The eleventh to Azareel, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

19 The twelfth to Hashabiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

20 The thirteenth to Shubael, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

21 The fourteenth to Mattithiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

22 The fifteenth to Jeremoth, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

23 The sixteenth to Hananiah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

24 The seventeenth to Joshbekashah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

25 The eighteenth to Hanani, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

26 The nineteenth to Mallothi, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

27 The twentieth to Eliathah, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

28 The one and twentieth to Hothir, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

29 The two and twentieth to Giddalti, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

30 The three and twentieth to Mahazioth, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

31 The four and twentieth to Romamti-ezer, ^{he}, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah the firstborn, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nathanel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also Hoshah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief);

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hoshah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 ¶ And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to Shalemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of Asuppim.

16 To Shuppim and Hoshah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward.

17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ And of the Levites, Abijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things.

21 As concerning the sons of La-dan; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

24 And Shebuel the son of Gershoni, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son:

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 ¶ Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.

28 And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 ¶ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was Jeriah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and to affairs of the king.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The twelve captains for every several month. 16 The princes of the twelve tribes. 23 The numbering of the people is hindered. 25 David's several officers.

NOW the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, ^athe princes of the tribes, and ^bthe captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and ^cthe stewards over all the substance and ^dpossession of the king, ^eand of his sons, with the ^fofficers, and with ^gthe mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, ^h*I had in mine heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for ⁱthe footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:*

3 But God said unto me, ^j*Thou shalt not build a house for my name, because thou ^khast been a man of war, and hast shed ^lblood.*

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel ^mchose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen ⁿJudah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, ^othe house of my father; and ^pI among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 ^q*And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) ^rhe hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.*

6 And he said unto me, ^sSolomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, ^tif he be ^uconstant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ^vAnd thou, Solomon my son, ^wknow thou the God of thy father, and serve him ^xwith a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for ^ythe LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: ^zif thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; ^afor the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ^bThen David gave to Solomon his son ^cthe pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern ^dof all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, ^eof the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, ^fboth for the candlestick, and ^galso for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight ^hhe gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and ⁱlikewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins ^jhe gave gold by weight for every basin; and ^klikewise silver by weight for every basin of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the ^lcherubim, that spread out ^mtheir wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, ⁿsaid David, ^othe LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, ^peven all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, ^qBe strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, ^reven my God, ^swill be with thee; ^the will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, ^uthe courses of the priests and the Levites, ^veven they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship ^wevery willing skillful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people ^xwill be wholly at thy commandment.

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing ^d to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then ^e the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with ^f the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave, for the service of the house of God, of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of ^g Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ^h offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ⁱ Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should ^j be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and ^k of thine own have we given thee.

15 For ^l we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: ^m four days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none ⁿ abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ^o triest the heart, and ^p hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ^q present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ^r prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And ^s give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which ^t I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and ^u anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, ^v submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and ^w bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

CHAPTER I.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND ^aSolomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and ^bthe Lord his God was with him, and ^cmagnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to ^dthe captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at ^eGibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover ^fthe brazen altar, that ^gBezuleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, ^hhe put before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the Lord, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 ⁱAnd in that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made ^jme to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: ^kfor thou hast made me king over a people ^llike the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may ^mgo out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 ^pAnd God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as ^qnone of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ^rThen Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 ^sAnd the king ^tmade silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 ^uAnd ^vSolomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, ^wby their means.

score and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to ¶ Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, ^c As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, ^d I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and ^e to burn before him ^f sweet incense, and for ^g the continual shewbread, and for ^h the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is ⁱ an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for ^j great is our God above all gods.

6 ^k But who ^l is able to build him a house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who ^m am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson, and in blue, and that can skill ⁿ to grave with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, ^o whom David my father did provide.

8 I Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and ^p algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants ^q shall be with thy servants.

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build ^r shall be ^s wonderful great.

10 ^t And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, ^u "Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them."

12 Hiram said moreover, ^v "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, ^w that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, ^x furnished with prudence and understanding, that might build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom."

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's,

14 ^y The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which ^z my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 ^{aa} And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, ^{ab} as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to ^{ac} Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ ^{ad} And Solomon numbered all ^{ae} the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith ^{af} David his father had numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set ^{ag} threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

CHAPTER III.

1 The place, and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubim. 14 The veil and pillars.

THEN ^{ah} Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at ^{ai} Jerusalem in mount Moriah, ^{aj} where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of ^{ak} Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things ^{al} where-in Solomon was ^{am} instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the ^{an} porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And ^{ao} the greater house he ceiled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he ^{ap} garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubim on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 ¶ And in the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 ¶ And he made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubim thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars: and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The altar of brass. 2 The molten sea upon twelve oxen. 3 The ten lavers, candlesticks, and tables. 9 The courts, and the instruments of brass. 19 The instruments of gold.

MOREOVER he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 ¶ Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was a handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thousand baths.

6 ¶ He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 ¶ And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 ¶ He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

9 ¶ Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God:

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars;

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, of bright brass.

17 ¶ In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 ¶ Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold:

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits † long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 ¶ Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, k † There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; I yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? ^m Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth † toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall † make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwellingplace, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, † and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel † be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee † in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the ⁿ heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there ^o be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting or mildew, locusts or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands † in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwellingplace, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only † knowest the hearts of the children of men:)

32 ¶ Moreover concerning the stranger, ^a which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwellingplace, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that † this house which I have built is called by thy name.

CHAPTER VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him.

4 Solomon's solemn sacrifice. 8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon giveth him promises upon condition.

NOW ^awhen Solomon had made an end of praying, the ^bfire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, ^csaying, For he is good; ^dfor his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised ^eby their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover ^kSolomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto ^mthe river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made ⁿa solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And ^oon the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus ^pSolomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.

13 ¶ If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; ^qthen will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now ^rmine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent ^sunto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have ^tI chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, ^a Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Solomon's buildings. 7 The Gentiles which were left Solomon made tributaries; but the Israelites rulers. 11 Pharaoh's daughter removed to her house. 12 Solomon's yearly solemn sacrifices. 14 He appointeth the priests and Levites to their places. 17 The navy fetcheth gold from Ophir.

AND ^a it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 ^b And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and ^c all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 [†] As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel, 8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, ^d even ^e two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 [†] And Solomon ^f brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are [†] holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 [†] Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate ^g every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, ^h three times in the year, ⁱ even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 [†] And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the ^b courses of the priests to their service, and the ⁱ Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the ^k porters also by their courses at every gate: for [†] so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 [†] Then went Solomon to ^l Ezion-geber, and to [†] Elath, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 ^m And Hiram sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

AND *when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his || cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine || acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, ^bwhich brought gold from Ophir, brought ^calgum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees || terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Besides that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and || governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and [†]stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of [†]pure gold: ^{||} none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish by the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, || ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ And Solomon ^dhad four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings ^ffrom the || river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 *And the king [†]made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 ^bAnd they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the [†]book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 nd And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.
31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam, refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolting kill Hadoram, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND ^a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, ^b whether he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 [†] And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father [†] put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: ^c for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the dhand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 [†] And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam [†] made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 ^c And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah. 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND ^a when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came ^b to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 [†] And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,
8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, 9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah.

10 And Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victuals, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Rehoboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.

16 And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom; which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victuals in abundance. And he desired many wives.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak. 5 He and the princes, repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD.

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubim, the Sukkiun, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, (Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries:

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guardchamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there.

And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he || prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding maketh war against Jeroboam. 2 He declareth the right of his cause. 13 Trusting in God he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeath. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel:

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

9 I have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh forth to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER XIV.

in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and ^bthe high places, and ^cbrake down the ^dimages, and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the ^eimages: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ^fAnd he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years: because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ^gAnd there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto ^hMareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa ⁱcried unto the LORD his God, and said; LORD, it is ^jnothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and ^kin thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not ^lman prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD ^msmote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto ⁿGerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were ^odestroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for ^pthe fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God. 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry. 18 He bringeth dedicate things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND ^athe Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded: 2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: ^bTHE LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and ^cif ye seek him, he will be found of you; but ^dif ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ^efor a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without ^fa teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ^gwhen they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And ^hin those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 ⁱAnd nation was ^jdestroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the ^kabominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities ^lwhich he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and ^mthe strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 ⁿAnd they offered unto the LORD ^othe same time, of ^pthe spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they ^qentered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul:

13 ^rThat whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel ^sshould be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other acts in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians. 12 His death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 ¶ For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat, succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth. 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah. 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute. 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

AND Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nathaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him a hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

2 And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? He answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, // but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go // into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, I put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again // from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow // at a venture, and smote the king of Israel // between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am // wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Jehoshaphat, reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom. 6 His instructions to the judges, 8 to the priests and Levites.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is // wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless, there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast // prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 // And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for // ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, // who is with you // in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for // there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor // respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 // Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat // set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 // And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so // wrath come upon // you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Jehoshaphat in his fear proclaimeth a fast. 5 His prayer. 14 The prophecy of Jahaziel. 20 Jehoshaphat exhorteth the people, and setteth singers to praise the LORD. 22 The great overthrow of the enemies. 26 The people, having blessed God at Berachah, return in triumph. 31 Jehoshaphat's reign. 35 His convoy of ships, which he made with Ahaziah, according to the prophecy of Eliezer, unhappily perished.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other besides the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be ⁱⁿ in Hazazon-tamar, which is ⁱⁿ in Eng-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set ^{himself} himself to ^{seek} seek the LORD, and ^{proclaimed} proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask ^{help} help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou ^{God} God in heaven? and ^{ruler} rulerst not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and ⁱⁿ in thine hand is ^{there} there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou ^{our} our God, ^{who} who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ^{thy} thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy ^{name} name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou ^{wouldest} wouldst not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but ^{they} they turned from them, and destroyed them not:

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, ^{to} to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not ^{judge} judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but ^{our} our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, ^{came} came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, ^{Be} Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the ^{cliff} cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the ^{brook} brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 ^{Ye} Ye shall not ^{need} need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye ^{still} still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: ^{for} for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat ^{bowed} bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: ^{Believe} Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established: believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, ^{and} and ^{that} that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^{Praise} Praise the LORD; ^{for} for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ ^{And} And when they began ^{to} to sing and to praise, ^{the} the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and ^{they} they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of † Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

1 Jehoram, succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren. 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt. 12 The prophecy of Elijah against him in writing. 16 Philistines and Arabians oppress him. 18 His incurable disease, infamous death, and burial.

NOW † Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son † reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to † Jehoram; because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ † Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of † Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

thy father, nor in the ways of Aa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding reigneth wickedly. 5 In his confederacy with Joram the son of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah, destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoshabeath his aunt hid, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors, after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him in a nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Jehoiaada, having set things in order, maketh Joash king. 12 Athaliah is slain.

16 Jehoiaada restoreth the worship of God.

AND in the seventh year Jehoiaada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jehoram, an Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adanah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath ^bsaid of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you ^centering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the ^ddoors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and ^dthey that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not ^ethe courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right ^fside of the [†]temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and ^ggave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [†]God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and ^hsuch as taught to sing praise: Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [†]Treason, treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering ^hof the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars, and his images in pieces, and ⁱslew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had ^kdistributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained [†]by David.

19 And he set the ^mporters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 ¶ And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada. 4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple. 15 Jehoiada's death and honourable burial. 17 Joash, falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. 23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehozabad. 27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

JOASH ^awas seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash ^bdid that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded [†]to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and ^cgather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God: and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD: and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet. 17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow. 25 His reign. 27 He is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH ^awas twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^bbut not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ ^cNow it came to pass, when the kingdom was ^destablished to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, ^eThe fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them ^ffrom twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath ^gpower to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the ^harmy of Israel? And the man of God answered, ⁱThe LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go ^jhome again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home ^kin great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to ^lthe valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But ^mthe soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that ⁿhe brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be ^ohis gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after ^pthe gods of the people, which ^qcould not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that ^rthe king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath ^sdetermined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then ^tAmaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying,
The ^uthistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by ^va wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldst thou meddle to ^wthine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear;
for ^xit came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of ^ytheir enemies, because they ^zsought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, ^{aa}both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was ^{ab}put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of ^{ac}Jehoahaz, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to ^{ad}the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with 25 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 10 Waxing proud, he invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten with leprosy. 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah took ¶ Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Me-hunim.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt: for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vinedressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had a host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host habergeons, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It is appointed not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence: yea, himself hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 ¶ And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper: for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said,

He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Jotham reigning well prospereth, 6 He subdueth the Ammonites. 7 His reign. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zedek.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 6 Judah being captivated by the Israelites is sent home by the counsel of Oded the prophet. 16 Ahaz sending for aid to Assyria is not helped thereby. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 26 He dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

AHAZ ^a was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnon, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^qthe city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ ^tAt that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [†]captives.

18 ^uThe Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shchoh with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwell there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of ^vIsrael: for he ^umade Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And ^xTilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this ^yis that king Ahaz.

23 For ^yhe sacrificed unto the gods of ^zDamascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, ^ztherefore will I sacrifice to them, that ^zthey may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, ^aand shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places [†]to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 ¶ ^bNow the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 3 He restoreth religion. 5 He exhorteth the Levites. 12 They sanctify themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 20 Hezekiah offereth solemn sacrifices, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

HEZEKIAH ^abegan to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter ^bof Zechariah.

2 And he did that ^cwhich was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^copened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; ^dsanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that ^ewhich was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have ^eturned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and ^fturned their backs.

7 ^fAlso they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the ^gwrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to ^gtrouble, to astonishment, and to ^hbissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, ^hour fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now ⁱit is in mine heart to make ^ka covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, [†]be not now negligent: for the LORD hath ⁱchosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and ^jburn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and came, according to the commandment of the king, [†]by the words of the LORD, ⁿto cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimed a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of idolatry, kept the feast fourteen days. 21 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

ly, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing [†] pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters [†] from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, ^d turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of ^e the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye ^f like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, ^g who therefore ^g gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now ^h be ye ^h not ^h stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but [†] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, ⁱ that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children ^{shall find} ^k compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God ^{is} ^l gracious and merciful, and will not turn away ^{his} face from you, if ye ^m return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manassah, even unto Zebulun: but ⁿ they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, ^o divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah ^p the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, ^q by the word of the LORD.

13 [†] And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the ^r altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ^s ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in [†] their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, ^{which they received of the hand of the Levites.}

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: [†] therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even ^a many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, ^b yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one.

19 That [†] prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were [†] present at Jerusalem kept ^z the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, [†] singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [†] comfortably unto all the Levites [†] that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and ^b making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep ^c other seven days: and they kept ^c other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [†] did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests ^c sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation [†] that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 [†] Then the priests the Levites arose and ^g blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to [†] his holy dwellingplace, even unto heaven.

Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed ^bthe courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites ^cfor burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the ^dlaw of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwell in Jerusalem to give the ^eportion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in ^fthe law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment [†]came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance ^gthe firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and ^hhoney, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought them in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the ^htithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [†]by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, ⁱSince the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough [†]eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ^jchambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them, 12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: ^kover which Coniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismaiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers [†]under the hand of Coniah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the frewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And [†]next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in [†]the cities of the priests, in [†]their [†]set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Besides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites ^mfrom twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their [†]set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, [†]which were in ⁿthe fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were [†]expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and ^pwrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began, in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that † he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also † he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired † Millo in the city of David, and made † darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and † spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 † Be strong and courageous, † be of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for † there be more

8 With him is an harm of flesh:
but † with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.
And the people † rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 † After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his † power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 † Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide † in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, † The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 † Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? † were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore † let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 † He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, † As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 † Then they cried with a loud voice, in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem † that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were
† the work of the hands of man.

20 † And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and † the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 † And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land.
And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels † slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and † presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was † magnified in the sight of all

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 k This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 † Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 † Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 † And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign. 3 He setteth up idolatry, and would not be admonished. 11 He is carried into Babylon. 12 Upon his prayer to God he is released, and putteth down idolatry. 18 His acts. 20 He dying, Amon succeedeth him. 21 Amon reigning wickedly is slain by his servants. 25 The murderers being slain, Josiah succeedeth him.

MANASSEH ^a was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 † For the built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 † Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 † Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He destroyeth idolatry. 8 He taketh order for the repair of the temple. 14 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to inquire of the Lord. 23 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but repiteth thereof in Josiah's time. 29 Josiah, causing it to be read in a solemn assembly, reneweth the covenant with God.

JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the || images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their || mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and || to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hhasrah, keeper of the wardrobe: (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands: therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard:

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, † great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. ¶ And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover. 20 He, provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER, Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.

3 And said unto the Levites, which taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build: but shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son:

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren, the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charehemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 ¶ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD.

27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ ^b Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 ¶ Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in ¶ fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 ¶ Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and ¶ Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ ^f Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And ¶ when the year was expired, ¶ king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, ¶ with the ¶ goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made ¶ ^h Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ ^k Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he ¶ stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 ¶ Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them ¶ by his messengers, rising up ¶ betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwellingplace: 16 But ¶ they mocked the messengers of God, and ¶ despised his words, and ¶ misused his prophets, until the ¶ wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no ¶ remedy.

17 ¶ Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who ¶ slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

18 ¶ And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 ¶ And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And ¶ ^y them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; ¶ where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of ¶ Jeremiah, until the land ¶ had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate ¶ she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

22 ¶ ^d Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of ¶ Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of ¶ Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 ¶ Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

tries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 And they kept also the feast of tabernacles, ^{as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, ^{as the duty of every day required:}}

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem: and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindered.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God: but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER V.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THEN the prophets, ^a Haggai the prophet, and ^b Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up ^c Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 At the same time came to them ^d Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, ^e Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king

Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And ^pthe vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, ^q whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ^rgovernor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and ^rlaid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and ^syet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, ^tlet there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Darius, finding the decrees of Cyrus, maketh a new decrees for the advancement of the building. 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 18 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, ^aand search was made in the house of the ^trolls, where the treasures were ^ulaid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at ^vAchmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 ^bWith three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let ^cthe golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and ^fbrought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 ^dNow therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and ^fyour companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover ^jI make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not ^khindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 ^lThat they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and ^mpray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, ⁿlet him be hanged thereon; ^oand let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his ^pname to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ^qThen Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 ^rAnd the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the ^scommandment of ^tCyrus, and ^uDarius, and ^vArtaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ^wAnd the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of ^xthe children of the captivity, kept ^ythe dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And ^zoffered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their ^adivisions, and the Levites in their ^bcourses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; ^cas it is written in the book of Moses.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 21 Ezra blesseth God for his favour.

NOW after these things, in the reign of ^a Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra ^b the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahiub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abihua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Elcazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ^c a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, ^d according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 ^e And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and ^f the Levites, and ^g the singers, and the porters, and ^h the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month ⁱ began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do ^j it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ^k Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, ^l king of kings, ^m unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, ⁿ and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent ^o of the king, and of his ^p seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, ^q whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

16 ^r And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, ^s offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their ^t meat offerings and their drink offerings, and ^u offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, ^v those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow ^w it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, ^x even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which ^y are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred ^z measures of wheat, and to a hundred batils of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing ^a how much.

23 ^b Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that, touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinim, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Joha-nan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliph-elet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a bright way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents; ²⁷ Also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, † precious as gold.

²⁸ And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

²⁹ Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

³⁰ So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

³¹ Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

³² And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

³³ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabab the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Bin-nui, Levites;

³⁴ By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

³⁵ Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

³⁶ And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God [†] hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and [†] join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, [†] thou art righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are ^h before thee in our trespasses; for we cannot ^k stand before thee because of this.

CHAPTER X.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent, and promise amendment. 15 The care to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW ^a when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down ^b before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [†] wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have ^c trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make ^d a covenant with our God [†] to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that ^e tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: ^g be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, ^h to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

6 [†] Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [†] forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 [†] Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and ^k all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for [†] the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [†] have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore I make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and ^m separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for [†] we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until ⁿ the fierce wrath of our God [†] for this matter be turned from us.

15 [†] Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah [†] were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 [†] And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maasiah, and Eliezer, and Jarih, and Gedaliah.

19 And they ^o gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being [†] guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth. 5 His prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah;
and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou com-mandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad
among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them;
though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's ⁹ cupbearer.

CHAPTER II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem. 12 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls. 11 He inciteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of ^a Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and ^b I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ^c sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

3 And said unto the king, ^d Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when ^e the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the ^f queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him fa time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained ^g to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^h according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Hironite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night ^k by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were ^l broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the ^m gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the ⁿ brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did: neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more ^o a reproach.

18 Then I told them of ^p the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they ^q strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Hironite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ^r laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? ^s will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: ^t but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER III.

The names and order of them that builded the wall.

THEN ^u Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, ^v and they builded the sheep gate: they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; ^w even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of ^x Hananeel.

2 And ^y next unto him builded ^z the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 ¶ But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and ^{aa} set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son

		1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the work. 7 Understanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch. 13 He arneth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.
		BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwell by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAPTER V.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbearth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then † I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^e Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ^h in the fear of our God ⁱ because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ⁱ and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also ^k I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and ^l emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. ^l And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ^m even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not ⁿ eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but ^o so did not I, because of the ^p fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were ^q at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that ^r which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this ^s required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 ¶ Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophets, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, ^a when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and ¶ Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates:)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem ^c sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^d Ono. But they ^e thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ¶ Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

16 And it came to pass, that ^k when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for ^l they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 [†] Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah [†] sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 40 of the Nethinim, 61 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 65 The whole number of them, with their substance. 70 Their oblations.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had ^a set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler ^b of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and ^c feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [†] large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 [†] And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written there-in.

6 ^d These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city:

7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, [†] Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Merdecia, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, ⁱ I say, of the men of the people of Israel was thus;

8 The children of Parosh, two thousand and a hundred seventy and two.

9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

20 The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.

21 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

22 The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight.

23 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four.

24 The children of [†] Hariph, a hundred and twelve.

26 The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, a hundred fourscore and eight.

60 All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 * And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah. Tel-haresha, Cherub, j Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their j seed, whether they were of Israel.

62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

63 ¶ And of the priests: the children of Ihabaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And j the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore.

67 Besides their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 ¶ And i some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. i The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work m twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

AND all ^athe people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that ^bwas before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the ^cscribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought ^dthe law before the congregation both of men and women, and all ^ethat could hear with understanding, ^fupon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that ^gwas before the water gate ^hfrom the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people ⁱwere attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a ^jpulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaijah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the ^ksight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people ^lstood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people ^manswered, Amen, Amen, with ⁿlifting up their hands: and they ^obowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with ^ptheir faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, ^qcaused the people to understand the law: and the people ^rstood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused ^sthem to understand the reading.

9 ^tAnd Nehemiah, which is ^uthe Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, ^vand the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ^w"This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ^xmourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law."

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, ^yand send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for ^zthis day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to ^asend portions, and to make great mirth, because they had ^bunder-stood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ^cAnd on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even ^dto understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded ^eby Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^fbooths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And ^gthat they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and ^h"in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and ⁱfetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as ^jit is written.

16 ^kSo the people went forth, and brought ^lthem, and made themselves booths, every one upon the ^mroof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the ⁿ"water gate," and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very ^ogreat gladness.

18 Also ^pday by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day ^qwas ^ra solemn assembly, ^saccording unto the manner.

CHAPTER IX.

1 ^aA solemn fast, and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of ^bthis month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And ^cthe seed of Israel separated themselves from all ^dstrangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and ^eread in the book of the law of the LORD their God ^fone fourth part of the day; and ^ganother fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ^hThen stood up upon the ⁱstairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabaniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethaiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever:

and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 ^fThou, even thou, art LORD alone; ^gthou hast made heaven, ^hthe heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou ^kpreservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose ⁱAbram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of ^m"Abraham;

8 And foundest his heart ⁿfaithful before thee, and madest a ^ocovenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, ^pI say, to his seed, and ^qhast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 ^rAnd didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and ^sheardst their cry by the Red sea;

10 And ^tshewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they ^udealt proudly against them. So didst thou ^vget thee a name, as it is this day.

11 ^wAnd thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, ^xas a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou ^yleddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 ^zThou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them bright judgments, and ^atrue laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy ^bholy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And ^cgavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and ^d ^ebroughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^fgo in to possess the land ^gwhich thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 ^hBut they and our fathers dealt proudly, and ⁱhardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed ^ka captain to return to their bondage: but thou art

^la God ready to pardon, ^mgracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, ⁿwhen they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy ^omanifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^ppillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy ^qgood Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy ^r"manna from their mouth, and gavest them ^swater for their thirst.

21 Yea, ^tforty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, ^uso that they lacked nothing; their ^vclothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of ^w"Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 ^xTheir children also multi-pliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So ^ythe children went in and possessed the land, and ^zthou sub-duedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them ^aas they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a ^bfat land, and possessed ^cb houses full of all goods, ^d wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and ^efruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and ^fbecame fat, and delighted themselves in thy great ^ggoodness.

26 Nevertheless they ^hwere disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and ⁱcast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy ^jprophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought
great provocations.

27 ^kTherefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou ^lheardst them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies ^mthou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, ⁿthey did evil again before thee: therefore lestest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they [†] dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (^q which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and [†] withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou [†] forbear them, and testifiedst [†] against them by thy Spirit [†] in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: [†] therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake [†] thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art [†] a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the [†] mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the [†] trouble seem little before thee, [†] that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, [†] since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit [†] thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but [†] we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have [†] not served thee in their kingdom, and in [†] thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and [†] fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, [†] we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And [†] it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have [†] dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we [†] make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, [†] seal unto it.

29 They came to their brethren, their nobles, [†] and entered into a curse, and into an oath, [†] to walk in God's law, which was given [†] by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

30 And that we would not give [†] our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:

31 [†] And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the [†] seventh year, and the [†] exaction of [†] every debt.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, ¹for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, ²as it is written in the law:

35 And ³to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD:

36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written ⁴in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:

37 ⁵And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and ⁶the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.

38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, ⁷when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to ⁸the chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi ⁹shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: ¹⁰and we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The rulers, voluntary men, and the tenth man chosen by lot, dwell at Jerusalem.
2 A catalogue of their names. 20 The residue dwell in other cities.

AND the rulers of the people dwell at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem ¹the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men, that ²willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 ³Now these are the chief of the province that dwell in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwell every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and ⁴the Nethinim, and ⁵the children of Solomon's servants.

4 And ⁶at Jerusalem dwell certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzai, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaieel, of the children of ⁷Perez;

5 And Manasseh the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adai, the son of Joarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6 All the sons of Perez that dwell at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedai, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah.

8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 ¹⁰Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joarib, Jachin.

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkinah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adai, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah.

13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, a hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, ¹¹the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16 And Shabbethai and Jozabab, of the chief of the Levites, ¹²had the oversight of ¹³the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakkukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galai, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in ¹⁴the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept ¹⁵the gates, were a hundred seventy and two.

20 ¹⁶And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21 ¹⁷But the Nethinim dwell in ¹⁸Ophel: and Zitha and Gispah were over the Nethinim.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of

1 The priests, 8 and the Levites, which came up with Zerubbabel. 10 The succession of high priests. 22 Certain chief Levites. 21 The solemnity of the dedication of the walls. 44 The offices of priests and Levites appointed in the temple.

NOW these are the ^rpriests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: ^sBeraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2 Amariah, ^{||} Malluch, Hattush,

3 ^{||} Shechaniah, ^{||} Rehum, ^{||} Meremoth,

4 Iddo, ^{||} Ginnetho, ^c Abijah,

5 ^{||} Miamin, ^{||} Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 ^{||} Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of ^dJeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, ^ewhich was over ^{||}the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakkukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 ^{||} And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

22 ^{||} The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the ^fChronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, ^gaccording to the commandment of David the man of God, ^hward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakkukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the ^{||}thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah, the governor, and of Ezra the priest, ^kthe scribe.

27 ^{||} And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, ^mboth with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Neotophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshulam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

35 And certain of the priests' sons ^cwith trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Mani, Nathaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with ^dthe musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 ^eAnd at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by ^fthe stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^gthe water gate eastward.

38 ^hAnd the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ⁱthe tower of the furnaces even unto ^jthe broad wall:

39 ^kAnd from above the gate of Ephraim, and above ^lthe old gate, and above ^mthe fish gate, ⁿand the tower of Mananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto ^othe sheep gate: and they stood still in ^pthe prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ^qAnd at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions ^rof the law for the priests and Levites: ^sfor Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites ^tthat waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David had Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they ^usanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law separation is made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed. 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God. 15 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day ^athey read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, ^bthat the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but ^chired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^dhowbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^ethat they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ^fAnd before this, Eliashib the priest, ^ghaving the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, ^hwhere aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, ⁱwhich was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: ^jfor in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and ^kafter certain days ^lobtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they ^mcleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ⁿAnd I perceived that the portions of the Levites had ^onot been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to ^m his field.

11 Then ⁿ contended I with the rulers, and said, ^o Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their [†] place.

12 ^p Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the [†] treasuries.

13 ^q And I made treasurers over the treasures, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and [†] next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted ^r faithful, and [†] their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ^s Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my [†] good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the [†] offices thereof.

15 ^t In those days saw I in Judah some treading winepresses [†] on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, ^u which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 ^x Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 ^y Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem ^z began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: ^a and some of my servants set [†] in the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye [†] about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that [†] they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. ^c Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the [†] greatness of thy mercy.

23 [†] In those days also saw I Jews that [†] had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and [†] could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language [†] of each people.

25 And I [†] contended with them, and [†] cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them [†] swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 ^z Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet [†] among many nations was there no king like him, [†] who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: [†] nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to [†] transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons ^m of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Hlononite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 ⁿ Remember them, O my God, [†] because they have defiled the priesthood, and [†] the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 ^p Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and [†] appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business:

31 And for [†] the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. [†] Remember me, O my God, for good.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

CHAPTER I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10
Vashti, sent for, refuseth to come. 13
Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned over India even unto Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces,)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even a hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasue-rus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abag-tha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom,)

15 ¶ What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasue-rus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported. The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 ¶ If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasue-rus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree, which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes: and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it

ach. l. 19, 20.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and "what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of ¶ Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 ¶ Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with ¶ Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, ¶ his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her ¶ things for purification, with † such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and † he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 ¶ Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, † to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women,)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and ¶ favour † in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king ¶ made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat † in the king's gate.

20 ¶ Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, ¶ Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept † the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, ¶ who told † it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumination a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 ¶ Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 ¶ The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. 4 Esther, understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She excusing herself is threatened by Mordecai. 15 She appointing a fast undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of ^d the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasurers for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him ^e the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai:

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into ^f the inner court, who is not called, ^g there is one law of his to put him to death, except such ^h to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, ⁱ then shall there ^j enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for ^k such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai ^l this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are ^m present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ⁿ three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: ^o and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai ^p went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER V.

1 Esther, adventuring on the king's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 2 She, being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 3 Haman, proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 4 By the counsel of Zeresh he buildeth for him a pair of gallows.

NOW it came to pass ^a on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in ^b the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, ^c that she obtained favour in his sight: and ^d the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what ^e is thy request? ^f It shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If ^g it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, ^h What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what ⁱ is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and ^j to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, ^k that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman ^l refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and ^m called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ⁿ the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a ^o gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow ^p speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the ban-

CHAPTER VI.

1 Ahasuerus, reading in the chronicles of the good service done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. 4 Haman, coming to see that Mordecai might be hanged, unawares giveth counsel that he might do him honour. 12 Complaining of his misfortune, his friends tell him of his final destiny.

ON that night ^o he could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring ^a the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of ^{||} Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the [†] door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 [†] And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into ^b the outward court of the king's house, ^c to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [†] whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man [†] whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 [†] Let the royal apparel be brought [†] which the king useth to wear, and ^d the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man ^{withal} whom the king delighteth to honour, and [†] bring him on horseback through the street of the city, ^e and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [†] let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 [†] And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman (hasted to his house mourning, ^g and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto ^h the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Esther, entertaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king in his anger, understanding of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the king and Haman came ⁱ to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day ^a at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee; and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are ^b sold, I and my people, [†] to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 [†] Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [†] that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, [†] The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid [†] before the king and the queen.

7 [†] And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath ^{went} into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon ^c the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king. Will he force the queen also † before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also (the † gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So † they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Mordecai is advanced. 3 Esther maketh suit to reverse Haman's letters. 7 Ahasuerus granteth to the Jews to defend themselves. 15 Mordecai's honour, and the Jews' joy.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told † what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off † his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 † And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, † and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then † the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse † the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, † which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I † endure to see † the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 † Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, † I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, I may no man reverse.

9 † Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are † from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 † And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 † Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 † The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was † published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 † And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of † blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and † the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had † light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast † and a good day. And many of the people of the land † became Jews; for † the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them; (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews "had rule over them that hated them,

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as "sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But that when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should be turned upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year:

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

*THE BOOK OF JOB.

CHAPTER I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumniation obtaineth leave to tempt Job. 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he blesseth God.

THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were ploughing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ¶ The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER II.

1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. 7 He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends condole with him in silence.

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER III.

1 Job curses the day and services of his birth. 13 The ease of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said,

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived. 4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 O, let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why did I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

CHAPTER IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveh Job for want of religion. ^r He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay ^f to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but ^f who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou ^h hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou ^h hast strengthened ^f the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this ^c thy fear, ^d thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, ^e who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, ^f they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and ^g by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless. 8 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity ^tlaid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier ^athan the sand of the sea: therefore ^amy words are swallowed up.

4 ^bFor the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: ^cthe terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray ^twhen he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me ^tthe thing that I long for!

9 Even ^dthat it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort;
yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for ^eI have not concealed the words of ^fthe Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh ^lof brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 ^hTo him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend;
but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and ^las the stream of brooks they pass away;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, ^tthey vanish: ^jwhen it is hot, they are ⁱconsumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of ^kTema looked, the companies of ^lSheba waited for them.

20 They were ^mconfounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 ⁿFor now ^aye are ^tnothing; ye see ^mmy casting down, and ^aare afraid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, ^jye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye ^kdig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is ^jevident unto you if I lie.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is ^jin it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot ^tmy taste discern perverse things?

IS there not ¹an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of a hireling?

2 As a servant [†] earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work;

3 So am I made to possess [‡] months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 [‡] When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and [†] the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is [‡] clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 [‡] My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye [†] shall no more ^{||} see good.

8 [‡] The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and ^{||} I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away; so [‡] he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, [†] neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will [‡] not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will [‡] complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 [‡] When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terriest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather [†] than my life.

16 [‡] I loathe it; I would not live always: [‡] let me alone; for [‡] my days are vanity.

17 [‡] What is man, that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why [†] hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works. 8 He allegorizeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 [‡] Both God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If [‡] thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away [†] for their transgression;

5 [‡] If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 [‡] For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For [‡] we are but of yesterday, and know [†] nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 [‡] Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the [‡] hypocrite's hope shall perish;

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be [†] as a spider's web.

15 [‡] He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun; and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 [‡] If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and [‡] out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he [†] help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwellingplace of the wicked [†] shall come to nought.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should [‡] man be just ^{||} with God?

cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 b He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not; which overturneth them in his anger;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble;

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars;

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

9 Which maketh [†]Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, [†]who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, [†]the [†]proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the [†]swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall [†]abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

CHAPTER X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; but I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise [†]the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou inquierest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

fusion; therefore I see thou mine affliction;

17 Thou renewest ⁿ thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 ^o Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 ^p Are not my days few? ^q Cease then, and ^r let me alone, that I may take comfort a little.

21 Before I go ^s whence I shall not return, ^t even to the land of darkness: and the shadow of death:

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should ^a a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy ^b lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For ^c thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that ^d they are double to that which is! Know therefore that ^e God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity ^f deserveth.

7 ^g Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 ^h It is ⁱ as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell: what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he ^j shut off, and shut up, or gather together, then ^k who can hinder him?

11 For ^l he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For ^m ⁿ vain man would be wise, though man be born ^o like a wild ass's colt.

13 ^p If thou ^q prepare thine heart, and ^r stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and ^s let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 ^t For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt ^u forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And ^v thine ago ^w shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig ^x about thee, and ^y thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall ^z make suit unto thee.

20 But ^a the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and ^b they shall not escape, and ^c their hope shall be as ^d the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said, 2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But ^a I have ^b understanding as well as you: ^c I am not inferior to you: yea, ^d I who knoweth not such things as these?

4 ^e I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who ^f calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 ^g He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 ^h The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth ⁱ abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee: and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 ^j In whose hand is the ^k soul of every living thing, and the breath of ^l all mankind.

11 ^m Doth not the ear try words? and the ⁿ mouth taste his meat?

12 ^o With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 ^p With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, ^q he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he ^r shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he ^s withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he ^t sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 ^u With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality.

2 He professeth his confidence in God: 20 and entreateth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.

5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will not maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation:

for a hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me; then will I not hide myself from thee:

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death.

2 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such a one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth

CHAPTER XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 11 He proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter † vain

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches where-

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness. 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case. 17 He maintaineth his innocency.

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 ¶ He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; ¶ mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have ¶ gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have ¶ gathered themselves together against me.

11 God ¶ hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare: he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach; he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, ¶ my witness is in heaven, and my record is ¶ on high.

20 My friends ¶ scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 ¶ Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his || neighbour!

22 When ¶ a few years are come, then I shall ¶ go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY || breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, ¶ the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye ¶ continue in their ¶ provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that ¶ will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid thine heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also ¶ a byword of the people; and || aforetime I was as a tabret.

7 ¶ Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all || my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath ¶ clean hands ¶ shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, ¶ do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 ¶ My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even ¶ the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day: the light is ¶ short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have ¶ said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down ¶ to the bars of the pit, when our ¶ rest together is in the dust.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.
3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.
4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,
5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?
6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;
7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?
8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.
9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.
10 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.
11 His bones are full of sin, the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.
12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;
13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth;
14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.
15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them out again: God shall cast them out of his belly.
16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.
17 He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.
18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.
19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he builded not;
20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.
21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.
22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.
23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.
26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.
27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.
28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Job sheweth that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 15 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.
4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?
5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.
7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?
8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.
10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.
13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.
14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?
16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 ^a Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 5 He accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

2 ^b Can a man be profitable unto God, ^c as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 ^d Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, 6 in confidence of his mercy. 8 God, who is invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocency. 13 God's decree is immutable.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 ^a Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 ^b Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 ^c Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

10 But he ^d knoweth ^e the way that I take: when ^f he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; ^g I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than ^h my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and ⁱ who can turn him? and what ^j his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he performeth the thing that is ^k appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God ^l maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing ^a times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and ^b feed thereof.

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they ^c take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: ^d the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness ^e yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap ^f every one his corn in the field: and ^g they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They ^h cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and ⁱ embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause ^j him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf ^k from the hungry;

11 Which ^l make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 ^m The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 ⁿ The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and ^o disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: ^p they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beareth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat ^q consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; ^r he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreatheth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, ^s and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet ^t his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but ^u are gone and brought low: they are ^v taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAPTER XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him; he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Job, reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, & acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction lieth not covering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his Spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

14 Lo, these are parts of his ways; but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

MOREOVER Job continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things. 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant: even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath || dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the || rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods | from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 * But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the b price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 * The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 † It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for || jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of || coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 * Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the || air.

22 † Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and || seeth under the whole heaven:

CHAPTER XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOREOVER Job | continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were * as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 † When his || candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when * the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and * the rock poured | me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and | laid their hand on their mouth.

10 † The nobles held their peace, and their || tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was || keys to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and I caused the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake || the jaws of the wicked, and I plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 * My root was † spread out P by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was † fresh in me, and my bow was † renewed in my hand.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt. 15 His prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary: fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste:

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief,)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors were turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thouregardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposeth thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolveth my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind upon another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is a heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from ^h the bone.

23 For ^u destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 ^v If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 ^w If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 ^x If I beheld ^h the sun when it shined, or the moon walking ^h in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or ^h my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were ^q an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 ^r If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him;

30 ^s (Neither have I suffered ^h my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 ^t The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors ^h to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions ^h as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

34 Did I fear a great ^x multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

35 ^y Oh that one would hear me!
^h Behold, my desire is, ^z that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof ^h complain;

39 If ^h I have eaten ^h the fruits thereof without money, or ^h have ^h caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let ^h thistles grow instead of wheat, and ^h cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he exhorteth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased ^h to answer Job, because he was ^h righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel ^b the Buz-ite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified ^h himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had ^h waited till Job had spoken, because they were ^h elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am ^h young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and ^h durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 ^h Great men are not always wise:
neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me;
I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words;
I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out ^h what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

13 ^h Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not ^h directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: ^h they left off speaking.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job. 8 He accuseth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry. 31 He inciteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken † in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 Behold, I am † according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am † formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken † in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, † he counteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou † strive against him? for † the giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then † he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction.

17 That he may withdraw man from his † purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life † from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain;

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul † dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness;

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found † a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher † than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any † say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it † profited me not;

28 He will † deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God † oftentimes with man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, † hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustices. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 21 Man must humble himself unto God. 24 Elihu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the † mouth tasteth meat.

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, I've are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

16 P Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. 16 How Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said,
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee † that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ^a he is mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the † poor.

7 ^b He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ^c with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And ^d if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 ^e He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall † spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart ^f heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 ^g They die in youth, and their life is among the † unclean.

15 He delivereth the † poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait ^h into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and † that which should be set on thy table should be full of ⁱ fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: † judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then ^m a great ransom cannot † deliver thee.

19 ⁿ Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, ^o regard not iniquity; for ^p this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: ^a who teacheth like him?

23 ^b Who hath enjoined him his way? or ^c who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou ^d magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off

26 Behold, God is great, and we ^e know him not, ^f neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he ^g maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof;

28 ^h Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can ⁱ any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he ^j spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth † the bottom of the sea.

31 For ^k by them judgeth he the people; he ^l giveth meat in abundance.

32 ^d With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 ^e The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning † the vapour.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works. 15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 † I hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his † lightning unto the † ends of the earth.

4 After it ^a a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; ^b great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For ^c he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; † likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He saileth up to the hand of every man; ^d that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts ^e go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 † Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the † north.

10 ^f By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearyeth the thick cloud: he scattereth † his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may ^g do whatsoever he commandeth them

13 ^b He causeth it to come, whether for ^c correction, or ^d for his land, or ^e for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and ^f consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 ^g Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of ^h him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments ⁱ are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south ^j wind?

18 Hast thou with him ^k spread out the sky, ^l which is strong, and as a molten lookingglass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; ^m for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now ⁿ men see not the bright light which ^o is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 ^p Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 ^q Touching the Almighty, ^r we cannot find him out: ^s he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore ^t fear him: he respecteth not any ^u that are ^v wise of heart.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 ^w God challengeth Job to answer. ^x God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

2 ^y THEN the LORD answered Job ^z out of the whirlwind, and said,

3 ^a Who is this that darkeneth counsel by ^b words without knowledge?

4 ^c Gird up now thy loins like a man: for I will demand of thee, and ^d answer thou me.

5 ^e Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, ^f if thou hast understanding.

6 ^g Who hath laid the measure thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

7 ^h Whereupon are the ⁱ foundations thereof ^j fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof?

8 ^k When the morning stars sang together, and all ^l the sons of God shouted for joy?

9 ^m Or ⁿ who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as ^o it had issued out of the womb?

10 ^p When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling band for it,

11 ^q And ^r brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

12 ^s And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall ^t thy proud waves ^u be stayed?

13 ^v Hast thou ^w commanded the morning since thy days; ^x and caused the dayspring to know his place?

14 ^y That it might take hold of the fends of the earth, that ^z the wicked might be shaken out of it?

15 ^a It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

16 ^b And from the wicked their ^c light is withholden, and ^d the high arm shall be broken.

17 ^e Hast thou ^f entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

18 ^g Have ^h the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

19 ⁱ Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

20 ^j Where ^k is the way ^l where light dwelleth? and ^m as ⁿ for darkness, where is the place thereof?

21 ^o That thou shouldest take it ^p to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

22 ^q Knowest thou ^r it, because thou wast then born? or ^s because the number of thy days is great?

23 ^t Hast thou entered into ^u the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

24 ^v Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

25 ^w By what way is the light parted, ^x which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

26 ^y Who ^z hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder?

27 ^a To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein ^b there is no man;

28 ^c To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

29 ^d Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

30 ^e Out of whose womb came the ice? and the ^f hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

31 ^g The waters are hid as ^h with a stone, and the face of the deep ⁱ is ^j frozen.

32 ^k Canst thou bind the sweet influences of ^l Pleiades, or loose the bands of ^m Orion?

33 ⁿ Canst thou bring forth ^o Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou ^p guide Arcturus with his sons?

CHAPTER XXXIX

1 Of the wild goats and hinds. 5 Of the wild ass. 9 The unicorn. 13 The peacock, stork, and ostrich. 19 The horse. 23 The hawk. 27 The eagle.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn: they go forth, and return unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?

12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?

13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacock? or // wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in the dust, 15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted: neither turneth he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha! and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

CANST thou draw out ¶ a leviathan

a cord; which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain:
shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 ¶ Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and † sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 † The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone;
yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the † habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee:
sling stones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 † Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like,
¶ who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God, preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him. 10 He magnifieth and bleaseth Job. 10 Job's age and death.

1 and said,

2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that ¶ no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 ¶ Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not:

¶ things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

11 Then came there unto him 1 all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed 11 the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had 14 fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 11 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED * is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the 11 ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But 11 his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree 1 planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf shall not 1 wither: and whatsoever he doeth shall 1 prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are 1 like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For 11 the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

7 The LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection.

A Psalm of David, *when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, ^ahow are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, ^bThere is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art ^ca shield
|| for me; my glory, and ^dthe lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and ^ehe heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 ^fI laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained
me.

6 ^hI will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set them- selves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God; ⁱfor thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the un-godly.

8 ^kSalvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience. 2 He reproveth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; || have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that ^athe LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 ^bStand in awe, and sin not:
^ccommune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

5 Offer ^dthe sacrifices of righteousness, and ^eput your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? ^fLORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put ^ggladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 ^hI will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: ⁱfor thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

To the chief Musician upon Neginoth, A Psalm
of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD;
^aI consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the ^bvoice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 ^cMy voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 ^dThe foolish shall not stand ^ein thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: ^fthe LORD will abhor
|| the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship ^gtoward ^hthy holy temple.

8 ⁱLead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of ^jmine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no ^kfaithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is ^lvery wickedness; ^mtheir throat is an open sepulchre; ⁿthey flatter with their tongue.

10 ^oDestroy thou them, O God;
^plet them fall || by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee ^qrejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because ^rthou defend-est them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, ^swilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

1 David's complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, ^aupon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 ^bHave mercy upon me, O LORD;
for I am weak: O LORD, ^cheal me;
for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, ^dhow long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul:
oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 ^eFor in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

PSALM VII.

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocence. 10 By faith he seeketh his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

• Bliggation of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 Let him tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this: if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy);

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their wickedness therefore return thou on high.

8 The Lord shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end: but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judge the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will move what his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it. And he is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the Lord according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the Lord most high.

PSALM VIII.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man.

To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained:

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands: thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field:

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment. 11 He knoweth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Math-labben, A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 Thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed theirs their memorial is perished with them.

8 And ^a he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 ^b The Lord also will be ^c a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that ^d know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: ^e declare among the people his doings.

12 ^f When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the ^g humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord: consider my trouble ^h which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will ⁱ rejoice in thy salvation.

15 ^j The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The Lord is ^k known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. ^l Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations ^m that forget God.

18 ⁿ For the needy shall not always be forgotten: ^o the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O Lord: let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lord: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 His prayeth for remedy. 20 He professeth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O Lord? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 ^a The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: ^b let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked ^c boasteth of his heart's desire, and ^d bleaseth the covetous, whom the Lord abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, ^e will not seek after God: ^f God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous: ^g thy judgments are far above out of his sight: ^h as for all his enemies, ⁱ he puffeth at them.

6 ^j He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: ^k for I shall ^l never be in adversity.

7 ^m His mouth is full of cursing and ⁿ deceit and fraud: ^o under his tongue is mischief ^p and ^q vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: ^r in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: ^s his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 ^t He lieth in wait ^u secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 ^v He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall ^w by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: ^x he hideth his face; he will never see ^y it.

12 Arise, O Lord: O God, ^z lift up thine hand: forget not the ^a humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked condemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not requite ^b it.

14 Thou hast seen ^c it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite ^d it with thy hand: the poor ^e committeth himself unto thee; ^f thou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 ^g Break thou the arm of the wicked, and the evil man: seek out his wickedness ^h till thou find none.

16 ⁱ The Lord is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt ^j prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To ^k judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more ^l oppress.

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, ^a the wicked bend their bow, ^b they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may ^c privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 ^d If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 ^e The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's ^f throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The Lord ^g trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 ^h Upon the wicked he shall rain ⁱ snares, fire and brimstone, and ^j a horrible tempest: ^k this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous Lord ^l loveth righteousness: ^m his countenance doth behold the upright.

8 He shall be like a burning tempest, ⁿ like a consuming fire. ^o He shall be like a burning tempest, ^p like a consuming fire.

PSALM XVII.

1 David, in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. 10 He sheweth their pride, craft, and eagerness. 13 He prayeth against them in confidence of his hope.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR [†] the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth [†] not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; ^a thou hast visited me in the night; ^b thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 ^c Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps [†] slip not.

6 ^d I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 ^e Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou ^{||} that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against thee.

8 ^f Keep me as the apple of the eye; ^g hide me under the shadow of thy wings, 9 From the wicked [†] that oppress me, from [†] my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

10 ^h They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they ⁱ speak proudly.

11 They have now ^k compassed us in our steps: [†] they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 [†] Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion [†] lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, [†] disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, ^m ^{||} which is thy sword:

14 [†] From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, ⁿ which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: ^{||} they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, ^o I will behold thy face in righteousness: ^P I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I ^a WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [†] my strength, ^b in whom I will trust: my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, ^c who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 ^d The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [†] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The ^e sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 ^f Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [†] out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 ^g He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 ^h And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, ^h he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place; ⁱ his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 ^k At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

14 ^m Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 ⁿ Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 ^o He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of ^{||} many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 ^p He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

† Heb. broken.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

† Heb. broken.

31 Who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, so that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

† Heb. caused to bow.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my Rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

PSALM XIX.

1 The creatures show God's glory. 7 The word his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

A Psalm of David.

^JUDGE ^mme, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity; ^cI have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.
2 ^dExamine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.
3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes; and ^eI have walked in thy truth.
4 ^fI have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.
5 I have [†]hated the congregation of evil doers; [†]and will not sit with the wicked.
6 ^gI will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD.
7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.
8 LORD, ^hI have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place [†]where thine honour dwelleth.
9 ⁱGather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with [†]bloody men:
10 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is [†]full of [†]bribes.
11 But as for me, I will [†]walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.
12 ^jMy foot standeth in an even place; [†]in the congregations will I bless the LORD.

PSALM XXVII.

1 David sustaineth his faith by the power of God, & by his love to the service of God, & by prayer.

A Psalm of David.

^THE LORD is ^amy light and ^bmy salvation; whom shall I fear? ^cthe LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, [†]came upon me to [†]eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
3 [†]Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
4 [†]One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may [†]dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold [†]the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall [†]set me up upon a rock.
6 And now shall [†]mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices [†]of joy: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 [†]When thou saidst, [†]Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
9 [†]Ilide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD [†]will take me up.
11 [†]Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in [†]a plain path, because of [†]mine enemies.
12 [†]Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies; for [†]false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as [†]breathe out cruelty.
13 [†]I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.
14 [†]Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM XXIX.

1 David exhorteth princes to give glory to God, 3 by reason of his power, 11 and protection of his people.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O † ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.
 2 Give unto the LORD † the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD || in † the beauty of holiness.
 3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: ™ the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon || many waters.

 11 The LORD will give strength unto his people: the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

 2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast ™ healed me.
 3 O LORD, † thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not ™ go down to the pit.
 4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks || at the remembrance of his holiness.
 5 For † his anger endureth but a moment; ™ in his favour is life: weeping may endure † for a night, ™ but † joy cometh in the morning.
 6 And ™ in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.
 7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast † made my mountain to stand strong: † thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.
 8 I cried to thee, O LORD: and unto the LORD I made supplication.
 9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? ™ Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?
 10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.
 11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.
 12 To the end that || my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

1 David shewing his confidence in God craveth his help. 7 He rejoiceth in his mercy. 9 He prayeth in his calamity. 10 He praiseth God for his goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN ™ thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: ™ deliver me in thy righteousness.
 2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou ™ my strong rock, for a house of defence to save me.
 3 For thou art my rock and my fortress: therefore ™ for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.
 4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.
 5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.
 6 I have hated them ™ that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.
 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.
13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD: for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD, for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins. 2 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 3 God's promises bring joy.

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: thou wilt guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song: play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made: and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For the spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he

A Psalm of David.

PSALM XXXVI.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that † there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For † he flattereth himself in his own eyes, † until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and † deceit: † he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 † He deviseth † mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself † in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 † Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like † the great mountains; † thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, † thou preservest man and beast.

7 † How † excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men † put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 † They shall be † abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of † the river † of thy pleasures.

9 † For with thee is the fountain of life: † in thy light shall we see light.

10 † Continue thy lovingkindness † unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the † upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, † and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estates of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET † not thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and † verily thou shalt be fed.

4 † Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 † Commit thy way unto the LORD: trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 † And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 k For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For ^m yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ⁿ thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.11 ^o But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.12 The wicked ^p plotteth against the just, ^q and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.13 ^r The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^s his day is coming.14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay ^t such as be of upright conversation.15 ^u Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.16 ^v A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.17 For ^w the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.18 The Lord ^x knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be ^y for ever.19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and ^z in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as ^a the fat of lambs: they shall consume: into smoke shall they consume away.21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but ^b the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.22 ^c For such as be blessed of God shall inherit the earth: and they that be cursed of him ^d shall be cut off.23 ^e The steps of a good man are ^f ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way.24 ^g Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed ^h begging bread.26 ⁱ He is ^j ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.27 ^k Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.28 For the Lord ^l loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: ^m but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.29 ⁿ The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.30 ^o The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 ^p The law of his God is in his heart; none of his ^q steps shall slide.32 The wicked ^r watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.33 The Lord ^s will not leave him in his hand, nor ^t condemn him when he is judged.34 ^u Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: ^v when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.35 ^w I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like ^x a green bay tree.36 Yet he ^y passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for ^z the end of that man is peace.38 ^a But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.39 But ^b the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord: he is their strength in the time of trouble.40 And ^c the Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, ^d because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

A Psalm of David, ^e to bring to remembrance.O ^f LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.2 For ^g thine arrows stick fast in me, and ^h thy hand presseth me sore.3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; ⁱ neither is there any ^j rest in my bones because of my sin.4 For ^k mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a heavy burden they are too ^l heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am ^m troubled; ⁿ I am bowed down greatly; ^o I go mourning all the day long.7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is ^p no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for ^q the light of mine eyes, it also ^r is gone from me.11 ^s My lovers and my friends ^t stand aloof from my ^u sore; and ^v my kinsmen ^w stand afar off.12 They also that seek after my life ^x lay snares for me; and they that seek my hurt ^y speak mischievous things, and ^z imagine deceits all the day long.

15 For in thee, O LORD, I do hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity: I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies I have lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

22 Make haste to help me, O LORD my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

1 David's care of his thoughts. 4 The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life, 7 the reverence of God's judgments, 10 and prayer, are his bridles of impatience.

To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me: while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

4 LORD, I make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is: that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth: and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man that his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in vain: shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heareth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth: because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry: hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

PSALM XL.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The cease of David's evils inflameth his prayer.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I WAITED patiently for the LORD: and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the mire clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Mine sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire: mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me.

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

his love to the BLESSED ^ais he that considereth ^bthe poor: the LORD will deliver him ^cin time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: ^band ^cthou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt ^cmake all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: ^cheal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise ^cmy hurt.

8 ^cAn evil disease, say they, cleaveth itself unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

9^e Yea, ^fmine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, (which did eat of my bread, hath ^glifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favour-est me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and ^cseest me before thy face for ever.

13^b Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to ever-lasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XLII.

1 David's zeal to serve God in the temple.

5 He encourageth his soul to trust in God.

To the chief Musician, ^aMaschil, for the sons of Korah.

As the hart ^a panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2^a My soul thirsteth for God, for ^bthe living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3^c My tears have been my meat day and night, while ^dthou continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, ^eI pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, ^fI went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

5^a Why art thou ^bcast down, O my soul? and ^cwhy art thou disquieted in me? ^dhope thou in God: for I shall yet ^epraise him ^ffor the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from ^cthe hill Mizar.

7^a Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: ^ball thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will ^ccommand his lovingkindness in the daytime, and ^din the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? ^awhy go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a ^bsword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: ^cwhile they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11^a Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? ^bhope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, ^cwho is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIII.

1 David, praying to be restored to the temple, promisseth to serve God joyfully. 6 He encourageth his soul to trust in God.

JUDGE me, O God, and ^bplead ^cmy cause against an ^dungodly nation: O deliver me ^efrom the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of ^cmy strength: why dost thou cast me off? ^awhy go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3^e O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me: let them bring me unto ^cthy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God ^cmy exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 2^d complaineth of their present evils. 17 Professing her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, * our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How ^bthou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantest them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For ^cthey got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, ^dbecause thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 *Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee ^fwill we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For ^gI will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast ^hput them to shame that hated us.

8 ⁱIn God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But ^kthou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to ^lturn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 ^mThou hast given us ⁿlike sheep appointed for meat; and hast ^oscattered us among the heathen.

12 ^pThou sellest thy people ^qfor nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 ^rThou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 ^sThou makest us a byword among the heathen, ^ta shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; ^ua by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 ^vAll this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, ^wneither have our ^xsteps declined from thy way:

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in ^ythe place of dragons, and covered us ^zwith the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or ^{aa}stretched out our hands to a strange god;

21 ^{ab}Shall not God search this out?

for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 ^{ac}Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 ^{ad}Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, ^{ae}cast us not off for ever.

24 ^{af}Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For ^{ag}our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise ^{ah}for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLV.

1 The majesty and grace of Christ's kingdom. 10 The duty of the church, and the benefits thereof.

To the chief Musician * upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, ^aMaschil, A Song of loves.

MY heart ^bis inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: ^cgrace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy ^dsword upon thy thigh, ^eO most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 ^fAnd in thy majesty ^gride prosperously, because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 ^hThy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 ⁱThou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore ^jGod, thy God, ^khath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 ^lAll thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 ^mKings' daughters were among thy honourable women: ⁿupon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 ^oHearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; ^pforget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the King greatly desire thy beauty: ^qfor he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: ^reven ^sthe rich among the people shall entreat ^tthy favour.

13 ^uThe King's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 ^vShe shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework: the

PSALM XLVI.

1 The confidence which the church hath in God. 8 An exhortation to behold it.

To the chief Musician * for the sons of Korah, * A Song upon * Alamoth.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, and the earth melted.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSALM XLVII.

The nations are exhorted cheerfully to entertain the kingdom of Christ.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm * for the sons of Korah.

O CLAP your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

2 For the LORD most high is terrible: he is a great King over all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

5 God is gone up with a shout.

the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church.

A Song and Psalm * for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled: they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tarsish with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof. 13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever):

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning: and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul, (and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.)

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

1 The majesty of God in the church. 5 His order to gather saints. 7 The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

A Psalm of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather ye my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds:

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High:

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hath thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him I that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

4 ^d Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil ^e in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 ^f Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother ^g conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 ^h Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be ⁱ whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken ^m may rejoice.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For ^x thou desirest not sacrifice; ^y else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 ^z The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with ^a the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, ^d O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise ^e destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of ^f thy dwellingplace, and ^g root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 ^h The righteous also shall see, and fear, ⁱ and shall laugh at him:

7 ^j Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but ^k trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his ^l wickedness.

8 But I am ^m like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

PSALM LIII.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man. 4 He convinceth the wicked by the light of their own conscience. 6 He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

THE ^a fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: ^b there is none that doeth good.

2 God ^c looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did ^d seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity ^e no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 ^f There ^g were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath ^h scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 ⁱ Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

- A Psalm of David, *when the Ziphim came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?
- SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.
- 2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.
- 3 For *strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.
- 4 Behold, God is mine helper: [†] the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.
- 5 He shall reward evil unto [†] mine enemies: cut them off [†] in thy truth.
- 6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD; [†] for it is good.
- 7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: *and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

1 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case. ⁹ He prayeth against his enemies, of whose wickedness and treachery he complaineth. ¹⁶ He comforteth himself in God's preservation of him, and confusion of his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neghinoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I ^a mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: ^b for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 ^c My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath ^b overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! [†] for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen ^d violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 ^c For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did ^b magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, ^a a man mine equal, ^b my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 [†] We took sweet counsel together, and ^b walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them ^c go down quick into [†] hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

17 ^b Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for [†] there were many with me.

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, ^a even he that abideth of old. Selah. [†] Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath ^a put forth his hands against such ^a ^b as be at peace with him: [†] he hath broken his covenant.

21 [†] The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 ^a Cast thy [†] burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: [†] he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: [†] bloody and deceitful men [†] shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

1 David, praying to God in confidence of his word, complaineth of his enemies. ⁹ He professeth his confidence in God's word, and promiseth to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Jonath-clem-rechochim, *Michtam of David, when the ^a Philistines took him in Gath.

BE ^amerciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 [†] Mine enemies would daily ^b swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou Most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 ^c In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust: ^d I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 ^c They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, [†] when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: [†] are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know: for ^b God is for me.

10 [†] In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I

PSALM LVII.

1 David in prayer fleeing unto God complaineth of his dangerous case. 7 He encourageth himself to praise God.

To the chief Musician, ³Al-taschith, Michtam of David, *when he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE ^amerciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee; ^byea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, ^cuntil these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high:
unto God ^dthat performeth all things for me.

3 ^eHe shall send from heaven, and save me ^ffrom the reproach of him that would ^gswallow me up. Selah.
God ^hshall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, ^bwhose teeth are spears and arrows, and ⁱtheir tongue a sharp sword.

5 ^kBe thou exalted, O God, above
the heavens; let thy glory be above
all the earth.

6 ^lThey have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

7 ^mMy heart is ⁿfixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake up, ^omy glory: awake, psaltery and harp: ^pI myself will awake early.

9 ^qI will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee
among the nations.

10 ^rFor thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 ^sBe thou exalted, O God, above
the heavens: let thy glory be above
all the earth.

PSALM LVIII.

1 David reproveth wicked Judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 devoteth them to God's judgments, 10 whereat the righteous shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, ³Al-taschith, Mich-
tam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness,
O congregation? do ye judge
uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness;
^aye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 ^bThe wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray ^cas soon as they are born, speaking lies.

4 ^dTheir poison is ^elike the poison of a serpent: they are like ^dthe deaf ^fadder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, ^gcharming never so wisely.

6 ^hBreak their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

7 ⁱLet them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: ^klike the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away ^las with a whirlwind, ^mboth living, and in his wrath.

10 ⁿThe righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: ^ohe shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 ^pSo that a man shall say, Verily there is ^qa reward for the righteous:
verily he is a God that ^rjudgeth in the earth.

PSALM LIX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his enemies. 6 He complaineth of their cruelty. 8 He trusteth in God. 11 He prayeth against them. 16 He praiseth
God.

To the chief Musician, ³Al-taschith, Michtam of David; *when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER ^ame from mine enemies, O my God: ^bdefend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For lo, they lie in wait for my soul: ^bthe mighty are gathered against me; ^cnot for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: ^dawake ^eto help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

6 ^fThey return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: ^gswords are in their lips:
for ^hwho, say they, doth hear?

8 But ⁱthou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 ^jBecause of his strength will I wait upon thee: ^kfor God is ^lmy defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall ^mprevent me: God shall let ⁿme see my desire upon ^omine enemies.

forget: scatter them by thy power;

PSALM LX.

1 David, complaining to God of former judgment, & now, upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance. ^o Comforting himself in God's promises, he craveth that help whereon he trusteth.

To the chief Musician ^a upon Shushan-eduth, ^b Michiam of David, to teach: ^c when he strove with Aran-naharaim and with Aran-zabab, whom Jacob returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, ^a thou hast cast us off, thou hast ^r scattered us, thou hast been displeased; ^o turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: ^b heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 ^c Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: ^d thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 ^e Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 ^f That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath ^g spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will ^h divide ⁱ Shechem, and mete out ^j the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; ^k Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; ^l Judah is my law-giver;

8 ^m Moab is my washpot; ⁿ over Edom will I cast out my shoe: ^o Philistia, ^p triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the ^q strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 ^r Will not thou, O God, ^s which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst ^t not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble: for ^u vain is the ^v help of man.

12 Through God ^w we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall ^x tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXI.

1 David fleeth to God upon his former experience. ^a He voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

To the chief Musician upon Neglab, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and ^a a strong tower from the enemy.

4 ^b I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: ^c I will ^d trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 ^e Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years ^f as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: ^g O prepare mercy ^h and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

1 David professing his confidence in God discounteth his enemies. ^a In the same confidence he encourageth the godly. ^b No trust is to be put in worldly things.

11 Power and mercy belong to God. To the chief Musician, ^c A Psalm of David.

TRULY ^a my soul ^b waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 ^c He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my ^d defence; ^e I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: ^a as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: ^b they bless with their mouth, but they curse ^c inwardly. Selah.

5 ^d My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 ^e In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, ^a pour out your heart before him: God is ^b a refuge for us. Selah.

9 ^c Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are ^d altogether lighter than vanity.

1 David's thirst for God. 4 His manner of blessing God. 9 His confidence of his enemies' destruction, and his own safety.

A Psalm of David, * when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: ^a my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and ^fthirsty land, ^fwhere no water is;

2 To see ^b thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 ^c Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee ^d while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be ^e satisfied as with ^f marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When ^f I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore ^f in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 ^f They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies. 7 He promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, as the righteous shall rejoice at it.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked: from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 ^a Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 ^c They encourage themselves in an evil ^d matter: they commune ^e of laying snares privily; ^f they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; ^f they accomplish in diligent search: both the inward ^f thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 ^a But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly ^f shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make ^f their own tongue to fall upon themselves: ^f all that see them shall flee away.

9 ^b And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 ^c The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him: and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

PRaise ^f waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, ^a unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 ^b Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt ^c purge them away.

4 ^d Blessed is the man whom thou ^e chooseth, and causeth to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: (we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 ^f By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; ^g who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; ^h being girded with power:

7 ⁱ Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening ^j to rejoice.

9 Thou ^k visitest the earth, and ^l waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it ^m with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: ⁿ thou settest the furrows thereof: ^o thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest ^p the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills ^q rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; ^r the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, & to observe his great works, & to bless him for his gracious benefits. 12 He voweth for himself religious service to God. 16 He declareth God's special goodness to himself.

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, [†] all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! [†] through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies [†] submit themselves unto thee.

4 [†] All the earth shall worship thee, and [†] shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

5 [†] Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 [†] He turned the sea into dry land: [†] they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exult themselves. Selah.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which [†] holdeth our soul in life, and [†] suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For [†] thou, O God, hast proved us: [†] thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 [†] Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 [†] Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; [†] we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a [†] wealthy place.

13 [†] I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: [†] I will pay thee my vows.

14 Which my lips have [†] uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of [†] fatlings, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 [†] Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 [†] If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

19 But verily God [†] hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM LXVII.

1 A prayer for the enlargement of God's kingdom, & to the joy of the people, & to the increase of God's blessings.

To the chief Musician on Negloth, A Psalm or Song.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us; and [†] cause his face to shine [†] upon us; Selah.

2 That [†] thy way may be known upon earth, [†] thy saving health among all nations.

3 [†] Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for [†] thou shalt judge the people righteously, and [†] govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 [†] Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and [†] all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM LXVIII.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 4 An exhortation to praise God for his mercies, 7 for his care of the church, 19 for his great works.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

LET [†] God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee [†] before him.

2 [†] As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: [†] as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But [†] let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them [†] exceedingly rejoice.

4 [†] Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: [†] extol him that rideth upon the heavens [†] by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 [†] A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 [†] God setteth the solitary [†] in families: [†] he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but [†] the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, [†] when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

8 [†] The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 [†] Thou, O God, didst [†] send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst [†] confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: [†] thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the [†] company of those that published it.

PSALM LXIX.

1 David complaineth of his affliction. 13 He prayeth for deliverance. 22 He devoteth his enemies to destruction. 30 He praiseth God with thanksgiving.

To the chief Musician ^a upon Shoshannim, A Psalm of David.SAVE me, O God; for ^a the waters are come in unto my soul.2 ^b I sink in ^y deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into ^y deep waters, where the floods overflow me.3 ^c I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: ^d mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.4 They that ^e hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness: and my ^f sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

9 ^g For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; ^h and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.10 ⁱ When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.11 I made sackcloth also my garment; ^k and I became a proverb to them.12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and ^l I was the song of the ^t drunkards.13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ^m in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: ⁿ let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of ^o the deep waters.y Ps. 18. 10. &

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity; and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

34 Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

35 For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXX.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promiseth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do it cheerfully.

I am thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O LORD God: thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been hidden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that say wait for my soul take counsel together, my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day: for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 Now also I when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, I shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with the psalter, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee: and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

PSALM LXXII.

1 David, praying for Solomon, sheweth the goodness and glory of his, in type, and in truth, of Christ's kingdom. 13 He blesseth God.

A Psalm 1* for Solomon.

GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showery that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish: and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him: and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him I shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually: and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains: the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name I shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The prophet, probably in a temptation, sheweth the wickedness, the prosperity of the wicked, 13 The reward given thereby, diligence. 15 The victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

A Psalm of Asaph.

TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain: violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 ^m Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and ⁿ washed my hands in innocence.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 *When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 *As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was ^ugrieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 *So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 ^z Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26 *My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that do a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

1 The prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary. 10 He moveth God to help in consideration of his power, 18 of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant.

^m Maaschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old: the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed: this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled thy casting down the dwellingplace of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle dove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

PSALM LXXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God. 2 He promiseth to judge uprightly. 4 He rebuketh the proud by consideration of God's providence. 9 He praiseth God, and promiseth to execute justice.

To the chief Musician, * A-taschith, A Psalm or Song * of Asaph.

2 || When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, ^aLift not up the horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the [†]south.

7 But ^bGod is the judge: ^che putteth down one, and setteth up another.

8 For ^din the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is ^efull of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: ^fbut the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 ^gAll the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but ^hthe horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM LXXVI.

1 A declaration of God's majesty in the church. 11 An exhortation to serve him reverently.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song * of Asaph.

IN ^aJudah is God known: his name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwellingplace in Zion.

3 ^bThere brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.

5 ^dThe stouthearted are spoiled; ^ethey have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 ^fAt thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

8 ^hThou didst cause judgment to

PSALM LXXVII.

1 The psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with diffidence. 10 The victory which he had by consideration of God's great and gracious works.

To the chief Musician, * to Jeduthun, A Psalm * of Asaph.

I CRIED unto God with my voice, ^aI even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 ^bIn the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: ^cmy sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

5 ^eI have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance ^fmy song in the night: ^gI commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

7 ^hWill the Lord cast off for ever? and will he ⁱbe favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth ^khis promise fail [†]for evermore?

9 Hath God ^lforgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

10 And I said, This is ^mmy infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

11 ⁿI will remember the works of the Lord: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 ^oThy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: ^pwho is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 ^qThou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

PSALM LXXVIII.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 0 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

^a Maschil of Asaph.

^aGIVE ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 ^bI will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 ^aWhich we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 ^dWe will not hide them from their children, ^eshewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For ^fhe established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, ^gthat they should make them known to their children:

6 ^hThat the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born: who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And ⁱmight not be as their fathers, ^aa stubborn and rebellious generation; ^ja generation ^kthat set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and ^lcarrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 ^mThey kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law; ⁿand ^oforgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 ^pMarvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, ^qin the field of Zoan.

13 ^rHe divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and ^she made the waters to stand as a heap.

14 ^tIn the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 ^uHe clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought ^vstreams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by ^wprovoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And ^xthey tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 ^yYea, they spake against God; they said, Can God ^zprovide a table in the wilderness?

20 ^aBehold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and ^bwas wroth: so ^ca fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel:

22 Because they ^dbelieved not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven.

24 ^eAnd had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 ^fMan did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 ^gHe caused an east wind ^hto blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and ⁱfeathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 ^jSo they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire:

30 They were not estranged from their lust: but ^kwhile their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and ^lsmote down the ^mchosen men of Israel.

32 For all this ⁿthey sinned still, and ^obelieved not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 ^pWhen he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and inquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that ^qGod was their Rock, and the high God ^rtheir Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did ^sflatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For ^ttheir heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

38 ^uBut he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time ^vstirred he his anger away, ^wand did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For ^xhe remembered ^ythat they were but flesh: ^za wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ^aprovoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, ^bthey turned back and tempted God, and ^climited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them // from the enemy:

43 How ^c he had ^f wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 ^c He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and ^f frogs, which destroyed them.

46 ^c He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 ^h He ^f destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with // frost.

48 ^f He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to // hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 ^f He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave // their life over to the pestilence;

51 ^h And smote all the firstborn in Egypt: the chief of their strength in // the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But ^m made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he ^l led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea ^q overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his ^p sanctuary, even to this mountain, ^q which his right hand had purchased.

55 ^h He cast out the heathen also before them, and ^d divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 ^t Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But ^u turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside ^x like a deceitful bow.

58 ^r For they provoked him to anger with their ^z high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 ^a So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent ^q which he placed among men;

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 ^c He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and ^d their maidens were not ^f given to marriage.

64 ^e Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord ^g awaked as one out of sleep, and ^h like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And ⁱ he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion ^k which he loved.

69 And he ^l built his sanctuary like high ^h palaces, like the earth which he hath ^f established for ever.

70 ^m He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 ^f From following ⁿ the ewes great with young he brought him ^o to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the ^p integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXIX.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem. 8 He prayeth for deliverance, 13 and promiseth thankfulness.

A Psalm of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen are come into ^a thine inheritance: ^b thy holy temple have they defiled; ^c they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 ^d The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; ^e and there was none to bury them.

4 ^f We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 ^g How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy ^h jealousy burn like fire?

6 ⁱ Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have ^k not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have ^l not called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwellingplace.

8 ^m O remember not against us // former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us; for we are ⁿ brought very low.

9 ^o Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, ^p for thy name's sake.

10 ^q Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight ^r by the ^f revenging of the blood of thy servants ^q which is shed.

11 Let ^t the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of ^u thy power ^f preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours ^v sevenfold into their bosom // their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.

PSALM LXXXIII.

1 A complaint to God of the enemies' conspiracies. 2 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

A Song or Psalm of Asaph.
KEEP ^a not thou silence, O God:
hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, ^b thine enemies make a tumult: and they that ^c hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and ^d let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one ^e consent: they are confederate against thee:

6 ^f The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek;

of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them:
† they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the ^g Midianites; as to ^h Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor: i they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like ^k Orch, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes
as ^l Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

13 ^m O my God, make them like

15 So persecute them ^p with thy

16 ^q Fill their faces with shame: that they may seek thy name, O Lord.

troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 ^r That men may know that thou, whose ^s name alone is JEHOVAH,

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 The prophet, longing for the communion they are that dwell therein. 8 He prayeth to be restored unto it.

To the chief Musician ^a upon Gittith, A Psalm ^b for the sons of Korah.

HOW ^c amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2 ^b My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 ^c Blessed are they that dwell in thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the 6 ^d Who passing through the valley also filleth the pools.

7 They go ^e from strength to appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob.
Selah.

9 Behold, ^f O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. ^g I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is ^h a sun and and glory: ⁱ no good thing will he withhold from them that walk up-

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 David strengtheneth his prayer by the conscience of his religion, 5 by the goodness and power of God. 11 He desireth the continuance of former grace. 14 Complaining of the proud, he craveth some token of God's goodness.

^aA Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am ^hholy: O thou my God, save thy servant ^athat trusteth in thee.

3 ^bBe merciful unto me, O LORD: for I cry unto thee ^hdaily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: ^cfor unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

5 ^dFor thou, LORD, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 ^eIn the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O LORD; ^fneither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 ^gAll nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: ^hthou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast ⁱdelivered my soul from the lowest ^jhell.

14 O God, ^kthe proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of ^lviolent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

15 ^mBut thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O ⁿturn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save ^othe son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant, ^b for his wonderful power, ^c for the care of his church, ^d for his favour to the kingdom of David. ^e 88 Then complaining of contrary events, ^f he expatiates, ^g prayeth, and blesseth God.

^h Maschil of ⁱ Ethan the Ezerite.

^j I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness

^k to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: ^l thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 ^m I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have ⁿ sworn unto David my servant,

4 ^o Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne ^p to all generations. Selah.

5 And ^q the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation ^r of the saints.

6 For ^s who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? ^t who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 ^u God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD ^v like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 ^w Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 ^x Thou hast broken ^y Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies ^z with thy strong arm.

11 ^a Or, Egypt. ^b Heb. with the arm of thy strength.

11 ^c The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: ^d as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 ^e The north and the south thou hast created them: ^f Tabor and ^g Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast ^h a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 ⁱ Justice and judgment are the ^j habitation of thy throne: ^k mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the ^l joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the ^m light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou ⁿ art the glory of their strength: ^o and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For ^p the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy Holy One, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty: I have exalted one ^q chosen out of the people.

20 ^r I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

21 ^s With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 ^t The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 ^u And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But ^v my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and ^w in my name shall his horn be exalted.

25 ^x I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Father, my God, and ^y the Rock of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him ^z my first-born, ^a higher than the kings of the earth.

28 ^b My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and ^c my covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 ^d His seed also will I make to endure for ever, ^e and his throne ^f as the days of heaven.

30 ^g If his children ^h forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they ⁱ break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

32 Then ^j will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only ^gwith thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the Most High, ⁱthy habitation;

10 ^kThere shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 ^lFor he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, ^mlest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and ⁿadder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath ^oknown my name.

15 ^pHe shall call upon me, and I will answer him: ^qI will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and ^rhonour him.

16 With ^slong life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God, ^tfor his great works, ^ufor his judgments on the wicked, ^vand for his goodness to the pious.

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

2 To ^wshew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness ^xevery night,

3 ^yUpon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; ^zupon the harp with ^aa solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great are thy works! and ^bthy thoughts are very deep.

6 ^cThy brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When ^dthe wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; ^eit is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 ^fBut thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall ^gbe scattered.

10 But ^hmy horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a unicorn: I shall be ⁱanointed with fresh oil.

11 ^jMine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear ^kmy desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 ^lThe righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish ^min the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and ⁿflourishing;

15 To shew that the LORD is upright: ^ohe is my rock, and ^pthere is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE LORD reigneth, ^qhe is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, ^rwherewith he hath girded himself: ^sthe world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

2 ^tThy throne is established ^uof old: thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 ^vThe LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, ^wfor ever.

PSALM XCIV.

1 The prophet, calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety. 8 He teacheth God's providence. 12 He sheweth the blessedness of affliction. 13 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD ^xGod, ^yto whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, ^zshow thyself.

2 ^aLift up thyself, thou ^bJudge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, ^chow long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 ^dHow long shall they ^eutter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 ^fYet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 ^gUnderstand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 ^hHe that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that ⁱteacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

11 ^jThe LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 ^kBlessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

PSALM XCV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness, 6 and for his goodness, 8 and not to tempt him.

^oCOME, let us sing unto the LORD: [†]let us make a joyful noise to [†]the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us [†]come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For [†]the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 [†]In his hand are the deep places of the earth: [†]the strength of the hills is his also.

5 [†]And the sea is his, and he made it:
and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let [†]us kneel before the LORD our maker.

7 For he is our God; and [†]we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. [†]To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, [†]as in the [†]provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When [†]your fathers tempted me, proved me, and [†]saw my work.

10 [†]Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom [†]I swear in my wrath [†]that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 4 for his greatness, 8 for his kingdom, 11 for his general judgment.

^oSING unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all
the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For [†]the LORD is great, and [†]greatly to be praised: [†]he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For [†]all the gods of the nations are idols: [†]but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and [†]beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 [†]Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory [†]due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD [†]in the beauty of holiness: fear before him,
all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen [†]that [†]the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: [†]he shall judge the people righteously.

11 [†]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; [†]let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: [†]he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

upon idolaters, 10 An exhortation to godliness and gladness.

[†]THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice: let the [†]multitude of isles be glad [†]thereof.

2 [†]Clouds and darkness are round about him: [†]righteousness and judgment are the [†]habitation of his throne.

3 [†]A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 [†]His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 [†]The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 [†]The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 [†]Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: [†]worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.

PSALM XCVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the Jews, 4 the Gentiles, 1 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

O ^a SING unto the LORD a new song; for ^b he hath done marvellous things: ^c his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 ^d The LORD hath made known his salvation: ^e his righteousness hath he ^f openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath ^g remembered his mercy, and his truth toward the house of Israel: ^h all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 ⁱ Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 ^j With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

7 ^k Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods ^l clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together.

9 Before the LORD; ^m for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

1 The prophet, setting forth the kingdom of God in Zion, 6 exhorteth all, by the example of forefathers, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE ^a LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: ^b he sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth ^c be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is ^d high above all the people.

3 Let them praise ^e thy great and terrible name; ^f for it is holy.

4 ^g The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executeest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 ^h Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at ⁱ his footstool; ^j for ^k he is holy.

6 ^l Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they ^m called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 ⁿ He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance ^o that he gave them.

8 Thou answerdest them, O LORD our God: ^p thou wast a God that forgavest them, though ^q thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 ^r Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM C.

1 An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

A Psalm of praise.

MAKE ^a a joyful noise unto the LORD, ^b all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: ^c he it is he that hath made us, ^d and not we ourselves; ^e we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 ^f Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; ^g his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth ^h to all generations.

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will ^b behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will ^c walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no ^d wicked thing before mine eyes: ^e I hate the work of them that turn aside; ^f it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not ^g know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: ^h him that hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh ⁱ in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will ^b early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers ^c from the city of the LORD.

23 He sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

A Prayer * of the afflicted, * when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry * come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; * incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 * For my days are consumed // like smoke, and * my bones are burned as a hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and * withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning * my bones cleave to my // skin.

6 * I am like * a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I * watch, and am as a sparrow // alone upon the housetop.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are * mad against me are * sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and * mingled my drink with weeping,

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for * thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 * My days are like a shadow that declineth; and * I am withered like grass.

12 But * thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and * thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and * have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the * set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in * her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall * fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, * he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be * written for the generation to come: and * the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath * looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 * To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose * those that are appointed to death;

21 To * declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He * weakened my strength in the way; he * shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: * thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 * They shall perish, but * thou shalt * endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But * thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 * The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy, 16 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS * the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 * Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who * healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who * redeemeth thy life from destruction; * who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies:

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that * thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 * The LORD executeth righteousness, and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 * He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 * The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and * plentiful in mercy.

9 * He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 * He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 * For * as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he * removed our transgressions from us.

13 * Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; * he remembereth that we are * dust.

15 As for man, * his days are as grass: * as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and * it is gone; and * the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness * unto children's children:

18 * To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

PSALM CIV.

1 *A meditation upon the mighty power, 7 and wonderful providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth perpetually to praise God.BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul. ^bO LORD my God, thou art very great; ^bthou art clothed with honour and majesty:2 ^cWho coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ^dwho stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:3 ^eWho layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ^fwho maketh the clouds his chariot: ^gwho walketh upon the wings of the wind:4 ^hWho maketh his angels spirits; ⁱhis ministers a flaming fire:5 ^j† Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.6 ^kThou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.7 ^lAt thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.8 ^m† They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto ⁿthe place which thou hast founded for them.9 ^oThou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ^pthat they turn not again to cover the earth.10 ^qHe sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ^r† run among the hills.11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ^s† quench their thirst.12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ^t† sing among the branches.13 ^uHe watereth the hills from his chambers: ^vthe earth is satisfied with ^wthe fruit of thy works.14 ^xHe causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ^yfood out of the earth:15 And ^zvine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^aoil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, ^bwhich he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests; as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for ^cthe conies.19 ^dHe appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ^eknoweth his going down.20 ^fThou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ^g† all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.21 ^hThe young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ⁱhis work and to his labour until the evening.24 ^jO LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.25 ^kSo is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.26 There go the ships: there is that ^l† Leviathan, whom thou hast ^m† made to play therein.27 ⁿThese wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ^othou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.30 ^pThou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.31 The glory of the LORD ^q† shall endure for ever: the LORD ^r† shall rejoice in his works.32 He looketh on the earth, and it ^s† trembleth: ^the toucheth the hills, and they smoke.33 ^uI will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let ^vthe sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. ^wBless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

his name's sake, ^k that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 ^l He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^m he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he ⁿ saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 ^o And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 ^p Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 ^q They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 ^r But flustered exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 ^s And he gave them their request; but ^t sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^u They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 ^v The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 ^w And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 ^x They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^y they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They ^z forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt:

22 Wondrous works in ^a the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 ^b Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen ^c stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised ^d the pleasant land, they ^e believed not his word:

25 ^f But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 ^g Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 ^h To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 ⁱ They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked ^j him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 ^k Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and ^l so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him ^m for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 ⁿ They angered ^o him also at the waters of strife, ^p so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 ^q Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 ^r They did not destroy the nations, ^s concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 ^t But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And ^u they served their idols: ^v which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, ^w they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto ^x devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, ^y even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and ^z the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they ^a defiled with their own works, and ^b went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore ^c was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people inasmuch that he abhorred ^d his own inheritance.

41 And ^e he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 ^f Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked ^g him with their counsel, and were ^h brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when ⁱ he heard their cry:

45 ^j And he remembered for them his covenant, and ^k repented ^l according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 ^m He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 ⁿ Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48 ^o Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. ^p Praise ye the LORD.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Matt. 8. 29.

7 And he led them forth by the bright way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 Again, they are diminished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God. 5 He prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise. 11 His confidence in God's help.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

1 David, complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas devoteth them. 16 He sheweth their sin. 21 Complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help. 29 He promiseth thankfulness.

PSALM CXVI.

1 The psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance. 12 He studieth to be thankful.

I a LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my sup-plications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him f as long as I live.

3 b The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell f gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 c Gracious is the LORD, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD preserveth the simple:
I was brought low, and he helped
me.

7 Return unto thy c rest, O my soul;
for f the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 g For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD h in the land of the living.

10 i I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:

11 k I said in my haste, I all men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God.
19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for not fear: what can man do unto me?

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

37 e Turn away mine eyes from ^hbeholding vanity; and ⁱquicken thou me in thy way.

38 k Establish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: ^mquicken me in thy righteousness.

41 n Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 p So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

49 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to ^rhope.

50 This is my ^scomfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

62 c At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 d The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: ^eteach me thy statutes.

TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

67 f Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

68 Thou art ^ggood, and doest good: ^hteach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

70 k Their heart is as fat as grease: but I delight in thy law.

71 m It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

72 n The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

JOD.

73 o Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: ^pgive me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

74 q They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because ^rI have hoped in thy word.

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are ^tright, and ^uthat thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be ^vfor my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

77 w Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for ^xthy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud ^ybe ashamed; ^zfor they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will ^ameditate in thy precepts.

166 l LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: m for all my ways are before thee.

TAU.

169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: n give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

171 o My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand help me; for p I have chosen thy precepts.

174 q I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and r thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.

176 s I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

BY the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us ^aa song; and they that ^awasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shall we sing the LORD's song in a ^astrange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above ^amy chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, ^aRase it, even to the foundation thereof.

8 O daughter of Babylon, ^awho art

PSALM CXXXVIII.

1 David praiseth God for the truth of his word. 4 He prophesieth that the kings of the earth shall praise God. 7 He professeth his confidence in God.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: ^abefore the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 ^aI will worship ^atoward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast ^amagnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answerest me, and strengthenedest me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet ^ahath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: ^afor sake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

1 David praiseth God for his allseeing providence, 17 and for his infinite mercies. 19 He denieth the wicked. 23 He prayeth for sincerity.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, ^athou hast searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou ^aunderstandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou ^acompassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, ^athou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

12 Yea, ^kthe darkness ^jhideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: ^jthe darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth ^tright well.

15 ^lMy ^lsubstance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book ^tall my members were written, ^lwhich in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 ^mHow precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 ⁿIf I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt ⁿslay the wicked, O God: ⁿdepart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they ^pspeak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 ^qDo not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

24 And see if there be any ^rwicked way in me, and ^rlead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from Saul and Doeg. 8 He prayeth against them. 13 He comforteth himself by confidence in God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil man: ^spreserve me from the ^sviolent man;

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; ^scontinually are they gathered together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; ^sadders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

4 ^tKeep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; ^tpreserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 ^uThe proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the way side; they have set gins for me. Selah.

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; further not his wicked device; ^vlest they exalt themselves. Selah.

9 ^wAs for the head of those that compass me about, ^wlet the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 ^xLet burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not ^yan evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will ^zmaintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

1 David prayeth that his suit may be acceptable, 3 his conscience sincere, 7 and his life safe from snares.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee: ^amake haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let ^bmy prayer be ^tset forth before thee ^aas incense; and ^athe lifting up of my hands as ^cthe evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: ^fand let me not eat of their dainties.

5 ^gLet the righteous smite me: it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered ^hat the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But ⁱmine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord: in thee is my trust; ⁱleave not my soul destitute.

3 He complaineth of his griefs. 5 He strengtheneth his faith by meditation and prayer. 7 He prayeth for grace, 9 for deliverance, 10 for sanctification, 12 for destruction of his enemies.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: ^a in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for ^b in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 ^d Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

5 ^e I remember the days of old; I

6 ^f I stretch forth my hands unto

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD; my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, ^h lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness ⁱ in the morning; for in thee do I trust: ^j cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for ^k I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine

PSALM CXLIV.

1 David blesseth God for his mercy both to him and to man. 5 He prayeth that God would powerfully deliver him from his enemies. 9 He promiseth to praise God.
11 He prayeth for the happy state of the fight:

2 ^b My goodness, and my fortress;

3 ^e LORD, what is man, that thou

4 ^d Man is like to vanity: ^e his days

5 ^f Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and and they shall smoke.

6 ^h Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and 7 ⁱ Send thine ^j hand from above;

8 Whose mouth ^m speaketh vanity,

9 I will ⁿ sing a new song unto thee, strument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 ^o It is he that giveth ^p salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 ^q Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose hood:

very swiftly.16 [†]He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.17 [†]He casteth forth his ice like mor-gels: who can stand before his cold?18 [†]He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.19 [†]He sheweth [†]his word unto Jacob, [†]his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.20 [†]He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise

PSALM CXLVIII.

1 [†]The psalmist exhorteth the celestial, 7 the terrestrial, 11 and the rational creatures to praise God.† PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens:
praise him in the heights.2 [†]Praise ye him, all his angels:
praise ye him, all his hosts.3 Praise ye him, sun and moon:
praise him, all ye stars of light.4 Praise him, [†]ye heavens of heavens, and [†]ye waters that be above the heavens.5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for [†]he commanded, and they were created.6 [†]He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.7 Praise the LORD from the earth, [†]ye dragons, and all deeps:8 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapour;
stormy wind [†]fulfilling his word:9 [†]Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and [†]flying birds:11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is [†]excellent: his glory is above the earth and heaven.14 [†]He also exalteth the horn of his people, [†]the praise of all his saints;even of the children of Israel, [†]a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

1 [†]The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the church, 6 and for that power which he hath given to the church.† PRAISE ye the LORD. [†]Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.2 Let Israel rejoice in [†]him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their [†]King.3 [†]Let them praise his name [†]in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.4 For [†]the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: [†]he will beautify the meek with salvation.5 Let the saints be joyful in glory:
let them [†]sing aloud upon their beds.6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and [†]a twoedged sword in their hand;7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people:8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;9 To execute upon them the judgment written: [†]k this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CL.

1 [†]An exhortation to praise God, 3 with all kind of instruments.† PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.2 [†]Praise him for his mighty acts:
praise him according to his excellent greatness.3 Praise him with the sound of the [†]trumpet: [†]praise him with the psaltery and harp.4 Praise him [†]d with the timbrel and [†]dance: praise him with [†]stringed instruments and organs.5 Praise him upon the loud [†]cymincrease learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 ¶ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 ¶ My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 ¶ For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 ¶ So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶ Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof;

26 ¶ I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh:

27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

28 ¶ Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

30 ¶ They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promisetli godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ¶ If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ¶ For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ¶ Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 ¶ Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

CHAPTER III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to devotion, 11 to patience. 13 The happy gain of wisdom. 19 The power, 21 and the benefits of wisdom. 21 An exhortation to charitable-ness, 30 peaceableness, 31 and contented-ness. 33 The cursed state of the wicked.

MY son, forget not my law; ^a but let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and ^b long life, and ^c peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: ^d bind them about thy neck; ^e write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 ^f So shalt thou find favour and ^g good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ^h Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; ⁱ and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 ^j In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall ^k direct thy paths.

7 ^l Be not wise in thine own eyes: ^m fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be ⁿ health to thy navel, and ^o marrow to thy bones.

9 ^p Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

10 ^q So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 ^r My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; ^s even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 ^t Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and ^u the man that getteth understanding:

14 ^v For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies: and ^w all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16 ^x Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

17 ^y Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

18 She is ^z a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

19 ^a The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he ^b established the heavens.

20 ^c By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and ^d the clouds drop down the dew.

21 ^e My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and ^f grace to thy neck.

23 ^g Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 ^h When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 ⁱ Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 ^j Withhold not good from ^k them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 ^l Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

29 ^m Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 ⁿ Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 ^o Envy thou not ^p the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: ^q but his secret is with the righteous.

33 ^r The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but ^s he blesseth the habitation of the just.

34 ^t Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame ^u shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked. 20 He exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

HEAR, ^a ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, ^b tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 ^c He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words:

5 ^d keep my commandments, and live.

6 ^e Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

7 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: ^f love her, and she shall keep thee.

8 ^g Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

9 ^h Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

CHAPTER V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom. 3 He sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot. 15 He exhorteth to continence, liberality, and chastity.

22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may ^a keep knowledge.

3 ^b For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honeycomb, and her mouth is ^c smoother than oil:

4 But her end is ^d bitter as wormwood, ^e sharp as a twoedged sword.

5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I ^f hated instruction, and my heart ^g despised reproof:

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ^h Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

19 ⁱ Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts ^j satisfy thee at all times; and ^k be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ^l For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ^m His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his ⁿ sins.

23 ^o He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money [†] with him, and will come home at [†] the day appointed.

21 With [†] her much fair speech she caused him to yield, ^m with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her [†] straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; ⁿ as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 [†] Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, ^o many strong men have been slain by her.

27 [†] Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The same, 6 and evidence of wisdom.

10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOTh not ^a wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors:

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of ^b excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is [†] an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness: there is nothing [†] froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 ^c For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with [†] prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 ^d The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: [†] pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and [†] the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; [†] I have strength.

15 ^h By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 [†] I love them that love me; and [†] those that seek me early shall find me.

18 [†] Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 ^m My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I [†] lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 ⁿ The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 ^o I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 ^p Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the [†] fields, nor [†] the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set [†] a compass upon the face of the depth:

28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 ^q When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when [†] he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 [†] Then I was by him, as one brought up [†] with him: [†] and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and [†] my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for [†] blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 [†] Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall [†] obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me [†] wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 ^b Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: ^c rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 ^m The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the Holy is understanding.

11 ^a For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 ^c If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself; but ⁱ if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 [†] A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat ^q in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

17 ^s Stolen waters are sweet, and bread ^t eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that ^u the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAPTER X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE Proverbs of Solomon. ^a A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 ^b Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: ^c but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 ^d The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away ^e the substance of the wicked.

4 ^f He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but ^g the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but ^h violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 ⁱ The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: ^k but ^l a prating fool ^m shall fall.

9 ⁿ He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 ^o He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: ^p but a prating fool ^q shall fall.

11 ^r The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but ^s violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but ^t love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but ^u a rod is for the back of him that is void of ^v understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but ^w the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 ^x The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof ^y erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and ^z he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 ^a In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but ^b he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want ^c of wisdom.

22 ^d The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 ^e It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 ^f The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but ^g the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, ^h so is the wicked no more: but ⁱ the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 ^j The fear of the LORD ^k prolongeth days: but ^l the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the ^m expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: ⁿ but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 ^o The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

CHAPTER XI.

A [†] FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD: but [†]a just weight is his delight.

2 [†]When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 [†]The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but [†]righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall [†]direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but [†]transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 [†]When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 [†]The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 A hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 [†]When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is [†]void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 [†]A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 [†]Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 [†]He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth [†]suretyship is sure.

16 [†]A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

17 [†]The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but [†]to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life; so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21 [†]Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that [†]scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 [†]The liberal soul shall be made fat: [†]and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 [†]He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but [†]blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: [†]but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 [†]He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but [†]the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and [†]he that [†]winneth souls is wise.

31 [†]Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 [†]A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 [†]A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is [†]as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 [†]The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: [†]but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 [†]The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: [†]but he that is [†]of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 [†]He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 [†]A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the [†]tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 [†]He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons [†]is void of understanding.

evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 † The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is † presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

17 He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life: and is the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE man heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desir-eth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth lying:
but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

24 He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him beltimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER XIV.

EVERY wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

strength of the ox.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.
8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.
9 ^s Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.
10 The heart knoweth ^t his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.
11 ^h The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.
12 ⁱ There is a way which seemeth right unto a man: but ^k the end thereof are the ways of death.
13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and ^l the end of that mirth is heaviness.
14 The backslider in heart shall be ^m filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from him-but the prudent man looketh well to eth from evil: but the fool rageth,

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

sinneth: ^p but he that hath mercy on but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

the talk of the lips tendeth only to hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the 31 ^a He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth ^h his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the the righteous is made plain.

20 ^a A wise son maketh a glad father; but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 ^a Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom; but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 ^a Without counsel purposes are disappointed; but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

24 ^a The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 ^d The LORD will destroy the house of the proud; but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 ^f The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD; but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 ^b He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hatheth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studyeth to answer; but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 ^k The LORD is far from the wicked; but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 ^m The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despise his own soul; but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 ^a The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE ^a preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 ^a All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 ^f Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 ^f The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 ^b Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD:
though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 ^k By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 ^m Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

9 ^a A man's heart deviseth his way:
but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 ^f A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 ^a A just weight and balance are the LORD's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 ^f It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 ^f Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 ^a The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 ^a How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 ^b Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 ^j He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and whose trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 ^a Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 ^b The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 ^c There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end there-
of are the ways of death.

26 ^d He that laboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth is craveth it of him.

27 ^f An ungodly man diggeth up evil; and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 ^a A froward man soweth strife; and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 ^a He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is ^a a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of ^b sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 ^c The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 ^d Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and ^e he that is glad at calamities shall not be ^f unpunished.

6 ^g Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 ^h Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do flying lips a prince.

8 ^a A gift is as [†] a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whither-soever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 ^b He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but ^c he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 ^d A reproof entereth more into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let ^e a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso I rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore ^h leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 ^a He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, ^c seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 ^d A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 ^a A man void of [†] understanding strieth hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and ^e he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 [†] He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath ^a a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 [†] He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 ^a A merry heart doeth good [†] like a medicine: ^b but a broken spirit trieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom [†] to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 ^a Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 ^a A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also ^b to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 ^c He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of [†] an excellent spirit.

28 ^d Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAPTER XVIII.

[†] THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominous reproach.

4 ^a The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 [†] It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 ^d A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 ^e The words of a [†] talebearer are [†] as wounds, and they go down into the [†] innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is [†] brother to him that is a great waster.

10 [†] The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and [†] is safe.

11 ^b The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit.

12 [†] Before destruction the heart of man is haughty; and before honour is humility.

13 He that [†] answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 [†] A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 [†] He that is first in his own cause

seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 ^aA man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 ^aDeath and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 ^aWhoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth entreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: ^aand there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER XIX.

BBETTER ^ais the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 ^aWealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 ^aA false witness shall not be ^junpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 ^aMany will entreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 ^aAll the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go ^hfar from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth ^fwisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding ^ashall find good.

9 ^aA false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less ^ffor a servant to have rule over princes.

11 ^mThe ^{||}discretion of a man deferreth his anger; ^aand it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 ^aThe king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is ^pas dew upon the grass.

13 ^aA foolish son is the calamity of his father: ^aand the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 ^aHouse and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and ^aa prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 ^aSlothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall ^ssuffer hunger.

16 ^aHe that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 ^aHe that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and || that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 ^aChasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare || for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must ^fdo it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise ^bin thy latter end.

21 ^aThere are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 ^aThe fear of the LORD tendeth to life; and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 ^aA slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 ^fSmite a scornee, and the simple ^fwill beware: and ^breprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 ^fAn ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and ^kthe mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, ^aand stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE ^ais a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 ^bThe fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger ^csinneth against his own soul.

3 ^dIt is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 ^aThe sluggard will not plough by reason of the ^{||}cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 ^aCounsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 ^bMost men will proclaim every one his own ^{||}goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

7 ^kThe just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

13 ^r Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 ^s It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but ^t the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 ^u Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 ^v † Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

20 ^b Whoso curseth his father or his mother, ^c his ^d lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 ^c An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; ^e but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 ^d Say not thou, I will recompense evil: but ^f wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 ^h Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and ^g a false balance is not good.

24 ⁱ Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 ^j It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and ^k after vows to make inquiry.

26 ^k A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 ^l The spirit of man is the ^m candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 ^m Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and ⁿ the beauty of old men is the gray head.

30 The bluness of a wound ^o cleanseth away evil: so ^p do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 ^a Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: ^b but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 ^c To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 ^d † A high look, and a proud heart, and ^e the ploughing of the wicked, is sin.

5 ^f The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one ^g that is hasty only to want.

6 ^h The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall ⁱ destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but ^j as for the pure, his work is right.

9 ^k It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with ^l a brawling woman in ^m a wide house.

10 ⁿ The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour ^o findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 ^p When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but ^q God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 ^r Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 ^s A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom, strong wrath.

15 ^t It is joy to the just to do judgment: ^u but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth ^v pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 ^w The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 ^x It is better to dwell ^y in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 ^z There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 ^a He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 ^b A wise man scaleteth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

27 * The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

28 † A false witness shall perish:
but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he || di-recteth his way.

CHAPTER XXII.

A * GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and || loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 b The rich and poor meet together: c the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 d A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 e || By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life.

5 f Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: g he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6 h || Train up a child i in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 i The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant j to the lender.

8 k He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: || and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 l || He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 m Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

11 n He that loveth pureness of heart, || for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge; and he overthroweth
|| the words of the transgressor.

13 o The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 p The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: q he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child: but r the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them † within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee
this day, || even to thee.

20 I have not I written to thee * excellent things in counsels and knowledge.

21 † That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth;
"that thou mightest answer the words of truth || to them that send unto thee?"

22 * Rob not the poor, because he is poor: y neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 † For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go;

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 † Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he b take away thy bed from under thee?

28 † Remove not the ancient || landmark, which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before † mean men.

CHAPTER XXIII.

W HEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties:
for they are deceitful meat.

4 * Labour not to be rich: because from thine own wisdom.

5 † Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings: they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

6 † Eat thou not the bread of him that hath d an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, e saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shall thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 † Speak not in the ears of a fool:
for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 † Remove not the old || landmark;
and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, // even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners; but // be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an // end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and // guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and // drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait // as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who // hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek // mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like // an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down // in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shall thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and // I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou // envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is a house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man // is strong; yea, a man of knowledge // increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors // there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that // deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is // small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain:

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not // he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man // according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet // to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, // then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 For a just man // falleth seven times, and riseth up again: // but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and // fit displeasure him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 // Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For // there shall be no reward to the evil man; // the // candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, // fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. // It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and // a good blessing shall come upon them.

1 Observations about kings, 8 and about causes thereof.

* THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 b It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is c to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings † is unsearchable.

4 d Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a 5 e Take away the wicked from before the king, and † his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 f Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 g For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 b Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 i Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and † discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee

11 k A word † fitly spoken is like reprover upon an obedient ear.

to them that send him: for he re-fresheth the soul of his masters.

14 m Whoso boasteth himself † of a thou be filled therewith, and vomit neighbour's house; lest he be † weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 r A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar

21 s If thine enemy be hungry, give

24 v It is better to dwell in the corner ling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul,

26 A righteous man falling down

13 ^f The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 ^g The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; ^h it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and ⁱ meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth ^j firebrands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, I am not I in sport?

20 ^k Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so ^l where there is no ^m talebearer, the strife ⁿ ceaseth.

21 ^o As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 ^p The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the ^q innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth ^r dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 ^s When he ^t speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose ^u hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 ^v Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Observations of selflove, 5 of true love, 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the household care.

BOAST ^a not thyself of ^b to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 ^c Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is ^d heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 ^e Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but ^f who is able to stand before ^g envy?

5 ^h Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6 ⁱ Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are ^j deceitful.

7 The full soul ^k loatheth a honeycomb; but ^l to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend ^m by hearty counsel.

10 ⁿ Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for ^o better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 ^p My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, ^q that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 ^r A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 ^s Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 ^t A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 ^u Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 ^v Hell and destruction are ^w never full; so ^x the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 ^y As the refining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

22 ^z Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and ^a look well to thy herds:

24 For ^b riches are not for ever: and both the crown endure ^c to every generation?

25 ^d The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of impiety and religious integrity.

THE wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the Lord understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression: the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Observations of public government, 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, thievary, cowardice, and corruption.

HE, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the Lord lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom; but ^a a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: ^b but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ^c Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ^d Where there is no vision, the people ^e perish: but ^f he that keep-eth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? ^g there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ^h An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ⁱ A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hatcheth his own soul: ^j he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 ^k The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD ^l shall be safe.

26 ^m Many seek ⁿ the ruler's favour;
but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is ^o abomination to the wicked.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 ^p Agur's confession of his faith. 7 The two points of his prayer. 10 The meanest are not to be wronged. 11 Four wicked generations. 15 Four things inestimable. 17 Parents are not to be despised. 18 Four things hard to be known.
21 Four things intolerable. 24 Four things exceeding wise. 29 Four things statelily. 32 Wrath is to be prevented.

THE words of Agur the son of Jahkeh, even ^a the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 ^b Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor
I have the knowledge of the holy.

4 ^c Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ^d who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment?
who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 ^e Every word of God is ^f pure: ^g he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 ^h Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; ⁱ deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; ^j feed me with food ^k convenient for me:

9 ^l Lest I be full, and ^m I deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 ⁿ Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation ^o that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 ^p There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, ^q to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, ^r It is enough:

16 ^s The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17 ^t The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of ^u the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a serpent upon a rock;
the way of a ship in the ^v midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 ^w For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are ^x exceeding wise:

25 ^y The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 ^z The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them ^{aa} by bands;

31 A greyhound; a he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance. 6 The afflicted are to be comforted and defended. 10 The praises and properties of a good wife.

THE words of king Lemuel, ^a the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, ^b the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways ^d to that which destroyeth kings.

4 ^e It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and ^f pervert the judgment ^g of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be ^h of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all ⁱ such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, ^k judge righteously, and ^l plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 ^m Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and ^o giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and ^p buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

20 ^q She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with ^r scarlet.

22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and catcheth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29 Many daughters ^s have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

CHAPTER I.

1 The Preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain: 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses, 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten, 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: ^a but the earth abideth for ever.

5 ^c The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^d hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 ^e The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 ^b All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they ^f return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: ⁱ the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 ^k The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 [†] I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: ^m this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man ⁿ to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 ^a That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and ^f that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^o more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart ^p had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 ^p And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For ^q in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasures. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

^a I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^b this also is vanity.

2 ^c I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 ^d I sought in mine heart ^e to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ^f all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ^f servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 [†] I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as [†] musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So [†] I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and [†] this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 [†] And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? [†] even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw [†] that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 ^k The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that [†] one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it [†] happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had † taken under the sun: because ^m I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 ⁿ For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are ^o sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ ^p There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he ^q should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good ^r in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that ^s he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's works. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast.

To every thing there is a season, and a ^t time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time ^u to be born, and ^v a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and ^w a time ^x to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to ^y get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; ^z a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to ^a hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 ¶ What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he labourerth?

10 ^b I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that ^c no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 ^d I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also ^e that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: ^f nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 ^g That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth ^h that which is past.

16 ¶ And moreover ⁱ I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, ^j God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is ^k a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, ^l that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 ¶ For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; ^m all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 ¶ Who knoweth the spirit ⁿ of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 ¶ Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for ^o that is his portion: ^p for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the ^q oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comfort; and on the ^r side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comfort.

which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

3 ° Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and † every right work, that † for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 ° The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 ° Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his seye satisfied with riches; † neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child, than an old and foolish king, † who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP ^athy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, † than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any † thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words ^a be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and † a fool's voice is ^a known by multitude of words.

4 ° When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: † pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ° Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; † neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but i fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou ^a seeest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not † at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 ^m There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 "As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and ° what profit hath he ^a that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also ° he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ^a it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun † all the days of his life, which God giveth him: ° for it is his portion.

19 ° Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 ¶ For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

1 Remedies against vanity are, a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of getting wisdom.

a Prov. 16. 30.
& 22. 1.

A GOOD name is better than a precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

i Or, Anger.
b 2 Cor. 7. 10.

3 ¶ Sorrow is better than laughter: b for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 c It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 d For as the † crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; e and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and † the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 f Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire † wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is † good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit h to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a † defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for i who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 k In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath † set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: † there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 m Be not righteous over much, n neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou † destroy thyself?

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: o why shouldest thou die † before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 p Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 q For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also † take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: r I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 s That which is far off, and t exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 u I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

29 Lo, this only have I found, † that God hath made man upright; but † they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? † a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and † b the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, † and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 † Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and † who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment † shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because † to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 † For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him † when it shall be?

8 † There is no man that hath power † over the spirit to retain the spirit: neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no † discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 † Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that † he shall be well surely in them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it † happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 † Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that † a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, † yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men.

7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this † I considered in my heart even to declare all this, † that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 † All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but † the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward: for † the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, † eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAPTER X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly: 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, this wisdom filleth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, believe not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whose breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 Curse not the king, nor not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether I shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time. 8 The Preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER "now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them:

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low:

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 ¶ Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge, yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

CHAPTER I.

1 The church's love unto Christ. 5 She confesseth her deformity, and prayeth to be directed to his flock. 8 Christ directeth her to the shepherd's tents: 9 and shewing his love to her, 11 giveth her gracious promises. 12 The church and Christ congratulate one another.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

4 Draw me, & we will run after thee: the King hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

I AM the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banquet-house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, O comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 ¶ I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the lilies of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth: the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice: for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us to the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

17 ¶ Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bethor.

CHAPTER III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation. 6 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY night on my bed I sought him, whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the lilies of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's: threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church. 8 He sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, ^athou art fair, my love; ^bbehold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, ^cthat appear from mount Gilead.

² Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing: whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

³ Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: ^dthy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

⁴ Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

⁵ Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

⁶ Until the day ^ebreak, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

⁷ ^fThou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

⁸ Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Annaba, from the top of Shenir ^gand Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

⁹ Thou hast ^hravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

¹⁰ How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! ⁱhow much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

¹¹ Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: ^jhoney and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is ^klike the smell of Lebanon.

¹² A garden ^linclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

¹³ Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; ^mcamphire, with spikenard,

¹⁴ Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense: myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

¹⁵ A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

¹⁶ ⁿAwake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, ^othat the spices thereof may flow out. ^pLet my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling. 2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 3 A description of Christ by his graces.

I^a AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; ^bI have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O ^cfriends; drink, ^dyea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

² ^eI sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved ^fthat knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

³ I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

⁴ My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved ^gfor him.

⁵ I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with ^hsweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: ⁱmy soul failed when he spake: ^jI sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

⁷ The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me; they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

⁸ I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, ^kthat ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

⁹ ^lWhat is thy beloved more than another beloved, ^mO thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy, ⁿthe chiefest among ten thousand.

¹¹ His head is as the most fine gold; his locks are ^olike bushy, and black as a raven:

¹² His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and ^psiftly set:

¹³ His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as ^qsweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh:

¹⁴ His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires:

¹⁵ His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars:

¹⁶ ^rHis mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This

CHAPTER I.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. 6 He lamenteth her judgments. 10 He upbraiddeth their whole service. 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments. 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken; I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 ¶ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ¶ I hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this of your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

16 ¶ Wash ye, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword:

h for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ¶ How is the faithful city become a harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 k Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 l Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and I will purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin;

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

28 ¶ And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 ¶ And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

CHAPTER II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking. 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amos saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarsish, and upon all the pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAPTER III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudency of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water, 2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he wear, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, I which lead thee cause thee to err, and I destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the LORD God of hosts.

16 Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings,

21 The rings, and nose jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins,

23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the veils.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.

CHAPTER IV.

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, that we take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwellingplace of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of ref-

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgment. 8 His judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my well beloved a song of my beloved touching ^ahis vineyard. My well beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he ^{||}fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also ^bmade a winepress therein: ^band he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^cjudge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: ^dI will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ^etrodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah ^fthis pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but beheld ^goppression; for righteousness, but beheld a cry.

8 ^{||}Woe unto them that join ^hhouse to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that ⁱthey may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ^f In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, [†]Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^kbath, and the seed of a homestead shall yield an ephah.

11 ^{||}Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine ^{||}inflame
them!

12 And ⁱthe harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but ^kthey regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ^{||}Therefore my people are gone into captivity, ^mbecause they have no knowledge: and ⁿtheir honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ^{||}the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and ^{||}God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of ^{||}the fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 ^{||}That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 ^{||}Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are ^{||}wise in their own eyes, and prudent ^{||}in their own sight!

22 ^{||}Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which ^{||}justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore ^{||}as ^{||}the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so ^{||}their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 ^{||}Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them:
and ^{||}the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were ^{||}torn in the midst of the streets. ^{||}For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ^{||}And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will ^{||}bring unto them from ^{||}the end of the earth: and, behold, ^{||}they shall come with speed swiftly:

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber
nor sleep; neither ^{||}shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

28 ^{||}Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion,
they shall roar like young lions; yea,

CHAPTER VI.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, being terrified, is confirmed for his message. 9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 ¶ And he said, Go, and tell this people, I hear ye, I indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,

12 And the Lord have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose cast substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the Lord unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ¶ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within three-score and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. ¶ If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ Moreover the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God: ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a ⁷razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left ³in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, ⁵it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 ¹In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he propheseth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria. 6 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said ²unto me, Take thee a great roll, and ³write in it with a man's pen concerning ⁴ Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, ⁵Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I ⁶went unto the prophets; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 ¹For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ⁴the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¹The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of ⁷Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice ⁸in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even ⁵the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, ¹⁰he shall reach even to the neck; and ¹¹the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¹Associate yourselves, O ye people, ²and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 ¹Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, ²and it shall not stand: ³for God is with us.

11 ¹For the LORD spake thus to me ²with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom ³this people shall say, A confederacy; ⁴neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 ¹Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and ²let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And ⁵he shall be for a sanctuary; but for ⁶a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall ⁷stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that ²hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I ³will look for him.

18 ¹Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me ²are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 ¹And when they shall say unto you, ²Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards ³that peep and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living ⁴to the dead?

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and [†]curse their king and their God, and look upward.

22 And [†]they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, [†]dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAPTER IX.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS ^athe dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the ^bfirst he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and ^cafterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee ^{||} of the nations.

2 ^dAnd the people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and ^{||}not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice ^ewhen they divide the spoil.

4 ^{||}For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and ^fthe staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of ^gMidian.

5 ^{||}For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ^hbut this shall be with burning and [†]fuel of fire.

6 ⁱFor unto us a child is born, unto us a ^kson is given: and ^lthe government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called ^mWonderful, Counsellor, ⁿThe mighty God, The everlasting Father, ^oThe Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^pthere shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The ^qzeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ^{||}The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. 9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and [†]join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel [†]with open mouth. ^rFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ^{||}For ^sthe people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, ^tin one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For ^uthe leaders of this people cause them to err; and ^{||}they that are led of them are [†]destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD ^vshall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: ^wfor every one is a hypocrite and an evil doer, and every mouth speaketh ^{||}folly. ^xFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ^{||}For wickedness ^yburneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up ^{||}like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is ^zthe land darkened, and the people shall be as the [†]fuel of the fire: ^{aa}no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall [†]snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, ^{ab}and they shall not be satisfied: ^{ac}they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: ^{ad}and they together shall be against Judah. ^{ae}For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promises of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them that ^adecree unrighteous decrees, and ^{||}that write grievousness which they have prescribed:

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and ^{||}that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And ^bwhat will ye do in ^cthe day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ^dFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

critical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 h Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 i For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 p For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants || like a valiant man:

14 And q my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall r the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? || as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up || itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his s fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of s his fruitful field, || both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be t few, that a child may write them.

20 u And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, x shall no more again stay upon him that smote them: but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 y The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 z For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: b the consumption decreed shall overflow || with righteousness.

23 c For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 d Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, || and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of e Egypt.

25 f For yet a very little while, g and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up h a scourge for him according to the slaughter of i Midian at the rock of Oreb: and k as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of l Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that m his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of n the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over o the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; p Gibeah of Saul is fled.

30 q Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto r Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 s Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain t at Nob that day: he shall u shake his hand against the mount of v the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and w the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall || by a mighty one.

their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; ^a and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

¹² I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

¹³ Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in ^P the day of his fierce anger.

¹⁴ And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: ^q they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

¹⁵ Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

¹⁶ Their children also shall be ^r dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

¹⁷ Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and ^s as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

¹⁸ Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

²¹ ^y But ^y wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of ^y doleful creatures; and ^y owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

²² And ^y the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their ^y desolate houses, and dragons in their ^y pleasant palaces: ^y and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 4 Their triumphant insultation over Babel. 24 God's purpose against Assyria. 29 Palestine is threatened.

¹ FOR the LORD ^a will have mercy on Jacob, and ^b will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: ^c and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

² And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, [†] whose captives they were; [†] and they shall rule over their oppressors.

³ And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

⁴ [†] That thou shalt take up this [†] proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the [†] golden city ceased!

⁵ The LORD hath broken [†] the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

⁶ He who smote the people in wrath with [†] a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

⁷ The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

⁸ Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

¹⁰ All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

¹¹ Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

¹² How art thou fallen from heaven, [†] O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

¹³ For thou hast said in thine heart, ^m I will ascend into heaven, ⁿ I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, ^o in the sides of the north:

¹⁴ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; ^p I will be like the Most High.

¹⁵ Yet thou ^q shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

¹⁶ They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

¹⁷ That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that [†] opened not the house of his prisoners?

¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: *the seed of evil doers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children *for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon *the name, and *remnant, *and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ¶ The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall *his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath *purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that *king Ahaz died was this burden.

29 ¶ Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, *because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a *cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city: thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and *none shall be alone in his *appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That *the LORD hath founded Zion, and *the poor of his people shall *trust in it.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE *burden of Moab. Because in the night *Ar of Moab is laid waste, and *brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 *He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: and on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: *on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, *weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh; their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 *My heart shall cry out for Moab; *his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, a *heifer of three years old: for *by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of *destruction.

6 For the waters *of Nimrim shall be *desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the *brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring *more upon Dimon, *lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Moab is exhorted to yield obedience to Christ's kingdom. 6 Moab is threatened for her pride. 9 The prophet bewaileth her. 12 The judgment of Moab.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land *from *Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird *cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of *Arnon.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the *extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, *the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy *shall the throne be *established; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, *judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 ¶ We have heard of the *pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: *but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab *howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations *of Kir-hareseth shall ye *mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For *the fields of Heshbon languish, and *the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 ¶ Therefore ^m I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, ⁿ O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for ^o the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And ^p gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore ^q my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on ^r the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, ^s as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and ^t feeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The woe of Israel's enemies.

THE ^a burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and ^b none shall make them afraid.

3 ^c The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and ^d the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 ^e And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 ¶ ^f Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man ^g look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the ^h images.

9 ¶ In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten ⁱ the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: ^j but the harvest shall be ^k a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Woe to the ^l multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas: and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of ^m mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like ⁿ a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at evening tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God in care of his people will destroy the Ethiopians. 7 An access thereby shall grow unto the church.

WOE ^a to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to ^b a nation ^c scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; ^d ^e a nation meted out and trodden down, ^f whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, ^g when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will ^h consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat ⁱ upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the earth: and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD brideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof; and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even: they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that naketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 ¶ In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it; and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 ¶ In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAPTER XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it:

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, "walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years ^dfor a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away [†]the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, ^eeven with their buttocks uncovered, to the [†]shame of Egypt.

5 [†]And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this ^{||}isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER XXI.

1 The prophet, bewailing the captivity of his people, seeth in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. 11 Edom, scorning the prophet, is moved to repentance. 13 The set time of Arabia's calamity.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As ^awhirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A [†]grievous vision is declared unto me; ^bThe treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. ^cGo up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore ^dare my loins filled with pain: ^epangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 ^{||}My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: [†]the night of my pleasure hath he [†]turned into fear unto me.

5 [†]Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 ^bAnd he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And ^{||}he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the [†]watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward ^{||}whole nights:

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, ^kBabylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 ^{||}O my threshing, and the [†]corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 [†]The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: return, come.

13 [†]The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies [†]of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema ^{||}brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled ^{||}from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, [†]according to the years of a hireling, and all the glory of [†]Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of [†]archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians. 8 He reprovethe their human wisdom and worldly joy. 15 He prophesieth Sabea's deprivation, 20 and Eliakin, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops? 2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ^aa joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound [†]by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, [†]which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; ^b†I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 ^cFor it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity ^dby the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 ^eAnd Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and [†]Kir [†]uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that [†]thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array ^{||}at the gate.

8 [†]Y And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour ^eof the house of the forest.

9 ^bYe have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here, and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth a habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the Lord will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut: and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the Lord hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return.

THE burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be ye still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her far off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the Lord hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years I shall Tyre sing as a harlot.

16 Take a harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The doleful judgments of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets: all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God, for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

OLORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city a heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that is spread over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ For it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God, 5 for his judgments, 12 and for his favour to his people. 20 An exhortation to wait on God.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high: the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is upright: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, "even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day I sing ye unto her, a vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it: I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them,
I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin: when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire;
for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come whom were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 The prophet threatneth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 6 The residue shall be advanced in the kingdom of Christ. 7 He rebuketh their error.
9 Their unthankfulness to learn, 14 and their security. 10 Christ the sure foundation is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 23 They are incited to the consideration of God's discreet providence.

W O E to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth
it up.

5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also shall have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with a stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing;
yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusamade a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the Lord shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your hands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the ploughman plough all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rye in their place?

26 ¶ For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

¶ WOE to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them fulfil sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 ¶ Thou shalt be visited of the Lord of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 ¶ And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 ¶ Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot: for it is sealed:

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

fear toward me is taught by ^{the} precept of men:

14 ^u Therefore, behold, [†] I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, ^{even} a marvellous work and a wonder: ^x for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 ^y Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and ^z they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the ^a work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 ^{Is} it not yet a very little while, and ^b Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

18 [†] And ^c in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 ^d The meek also [†] shall increase their joy in the LORD, and ^e the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and ^f the scorner is consumed, and all that ^g watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just ⁱ for a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, ^k who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his children, ^l the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 They also ^m that erred in spirit [†] shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The prophet threatneth the people for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word. 18 God's mercies towards his church. 27 God's wrath, and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, ^a that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, ^b that they may add sin to sin:

2 ^c That walk to go down into Egypt, and ^d have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 ^e Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at ^f Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 ^g They were all ashamed of a people ^{that} could not profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 ^h The burden of the beasts of the south: Into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence ^{come} the young and old lion, ⁱ the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 ^k For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried ^{||} concerning this, ^l Their strength is to sit still.

8 [†] Now go, ^m write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for [†] the time to come for ever and ever:

9 That ⁿ this is a rebellious people, lying children, children ^{that} will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 ^o Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, ^p speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in ^{||} oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you ^q as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking ^r cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And ^s he shall break it as the breaking of [†] the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water ^{withal} out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: ^t In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: ^u and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 ^x One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one: at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as ^y a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

19 For the people ² shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you ³ the bread of adversity, and the water of ⁴ affliction, yet shall not ⁵ thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye ⁶ turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 ¶ Ye shall defile also the covering of ⁷ thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt ⁸ cast them away as a menstruous cloth; ⁹ thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 ¶ Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat ¹⁰ ¶ clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be ¹¹ upon every high mountain, and upon every ¹² high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover ¹³ the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof ¹⁴ is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, ¹⁵ shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be ¹⁶ a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night ¹⁷ when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into ¹⁸ the mountain of the LORD, to the ¹⁹ Mighty One of Israel.

30 ¶ And the LORD shall cause ²⁰ his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall ²³ lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of ²⁴ shaking will he fight ²⁵ with it.

33 ¶ For Tophet is ordained ²⁶ of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 6 He exhorteth to conversion. 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them ¹ that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ² neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and ³ will not ⁴ call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are ⁵ men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, ⁶ Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ⁷ noise of them: ⁸ so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; ⁹ defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have ¹⁰ deeply revolted.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom. 9 Desolation is foretold. 15 Restoration is promised to succeed.

BEHOOLD, a King shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the tents, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of the church. 13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of thy salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions solicited the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW ^a it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Mikiab's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ b And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) || I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the c staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give || pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, || Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah mourning sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them. 6 Isaiah comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib, going to encounter Tirhakah, sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 21 Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib, and the good of Zion. 36 An angel slayeth the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is slain at Nineveh by his own sons.

AND ^ait came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of ^bblasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is ^cleft.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ^dsend a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee.

Before CHRIST
710.

And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of ^eHamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 °Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the ^fnations, and their countries,

19 And have ^gcast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn: the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defended cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as growth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

36 Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Shazer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah, having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, b Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, c Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and d I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be e a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the f sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: h I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; i undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: j I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of 17 Behold, ^hfor peace I had great bitterness; but ⁱthou hast in love to my soul ^jdelivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For ^kthe grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I ^ldo this day: ^mthe father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ⁿready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For ^oIsaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 ^pHezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 ^qMerodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures. 2 ^rIsaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^sthat time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 ^tAnd Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his ^uprecious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ^varmour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ^wThen came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ^xthat all that is in thine house, and ^ythat which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and ^zthey shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, ^aA good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER XL.

1 ^bThe promulgation of the gospel. 2 ^cThe preaching of John Baptist. 3 ^dThe preaching of the apostles. 4 ^eThe prophet by the omnipotency of God, 18 and his incomparableness, 26 comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye ^fcomfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her ^gwarfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: ^hfor she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 ⁱ¶ ^jThe voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, ^kPrepare ye the way of the LORD, ^lmake straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: ^mand the crooked shall be made ⁿstraight, and the rough places ^oplain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^pAll flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because ^qthe spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but ^rthe word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ^s¶ ^tO Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; ^uO Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the LORD God will come ^vwith strong hand, and ^whis arm shall rule for him: behold, ^xhis reward is with him, and ^yhis work before him.

taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 ¶ The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 ¶ It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 ¶ To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fail:

31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 God expositulateth with his people, about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord, the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smotheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel: I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The office of Christ, graced with meekness and constancy. 5 God's promise unto him. 10 An exhortation to praise God for his gospel. 11 He reproveth the people of incredulity.

BEHOOLD ^amy servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom ^bmy soul ^bdelighteth; ^cI have put my Spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the ^dsmoking flax shall he not ^equench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be ^fdiscouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: ^gand the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ^hThus saith God the LORD, ⁱhe that created the heavens, and stretched them out; ^jhe that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; ^khe that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 ^lI the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, ^mand give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to ⁿbring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in ^o"darkness out of the prison house.

8 I am the LORD; that is my name: and my ^pglory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 ^qSing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ^rye that go down to the sea, and ^sfall that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up ^ttheir voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, ^uyea, roar; he shall ^vprevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travelling woman; I will destroy and ^wdevour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 ¶ They shall be ^aturned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 ¶ Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant?

20 Seeing many things, ^abut thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make ^bit honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; ^bthey are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for ^aa spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? ^awho will hearken and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the Lord, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle; ^aand it hath set him on fire round about, ^byet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 8 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people. 22 He reproveh the people as inexcusable.

BUT now thus saith the Lord ^athat created thee, O Jacob, ^band he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: ^cfor I have redeemed thee, ^dI have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 ^aWhen thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou ^bwalkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: ^bI gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will

I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 ¶ Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west:

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth:

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, ^aI have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 ¶ Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: ^awho among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 ¶ Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, ^aand my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: ^bbefore me there was ^cno God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, ^aam the Lord; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no ^astrange god among you: ^btherefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God.

13 ¶ Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall ^blet it?

14 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their ^bnobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the Lord, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the Lord, which ^amaketh a way in the sea, and a ^bpath in the mighty waters;

17 Which ^bbringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power: they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? ^aI will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the ^bowls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 ¶ Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast ^kwearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that bloteth out thy transgressions ^mfor mine own sake, ⁿand will not remember thy sins.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 1 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, ^aO Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, ^bJeshurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ^cpour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the watercourses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, ^dand his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; ^eI am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

7 And ^fwho, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, ^hthere is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their ⁱdelectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; ^jthey see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image. ^kthat is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ^lashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 ¶ The smith ^mwith the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ⁿstrengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 ¶ They have not known nor understood: for ^ohe hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none ^pconsidereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He leaveth on ashes; a devolved heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul;
nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel: for "thou art my servant; I have formed thee; thou art my servant; O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins; return unto me;
for I have redeemed thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it; shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein; for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, "thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; "that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That frustrateth the tokens
"of the stars, and maketh diviners vain; that maketh wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places
thereof;

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers;

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God visiteth Cyrus for his service's sake, by his own power, he shall smite the Assyrians, and he shall smite the Assyrians by his own power.

2 Thus saith the LORD to his anoint-ed, to Cyrus, whose "right hand
I have hidden, "to subvert nations before him; and I will loose the bands of kings, to open before him the two-loven gates; and the gates shall not be shut.

3 I will go before thee, "and make the crooked places straight; and I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron;

4 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places; "that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

5 For "Jacob my servant I take, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name; I have signified thee, though thou hast not known
me.

6 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me;

7 That they may know from the desp of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me, I am the LORD, and there is none else.

8 I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and "create evil;
I the LORD do all these things.

9 Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

10 Woe unto him that stroveth with him Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth,
"shall the clay say to him that fashion-eth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

11 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

12 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy
One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning
"my sons, and concerning "the work of my hands command ye me,

13 I have made the earth, and "created man upon it; I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and "all their host have I commanded.

14 I have raised him up in right counsel, and I will direct all his ways; he shall "build my city, and he shall let go my captives, "not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

15 Thus saith the LORD, "The Israhel of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine; they shall come after thee; "in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make up pilgrimage unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and "there is none else, there is no God.

16 Verily they are a God that hid-est thyself, O God of Israel, the Holy
One.

17 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them; they shall go to confusion together that are "makers of idols.

18 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation; ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded without end.

19 For thus saith the LORD (that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it;
he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; "I am the LORD, and there

²⁰ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

²¹ Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: ²² who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

²³ Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

²⁴ I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

²⁵ Surely shall one say, In the LORD have I ²⁶ righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

²⁷ In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

CHAPTER XLVI.

¹ The idols of Babylon could not save themselves, 3 God saveth his people to the end. 5 Idols are not comparable to God for power, 12 or present salvation.

¹ Behold, and stoop down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy laden: ² they are a burden to the weary beast.

³ They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, ⁴ but they themselves are gone into captivity.

⁵ Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb:

⁶ And even to your old age ⁷ I am he; and even to hoar hairs I will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

⁸ To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

⁹ They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, you, they worship.

¹⁰ They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth: from his place shall he not remove: yea, ¹¹ none shall say unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

⁸ Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

⁹ Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else: I am God, and there is none like me.

¹⁰ Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, ¹¹ My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

¹² Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, ¹³ I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

¹⁴ Hearken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

¹⁵ I bring near my righteousness: it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAPTER XLVII.

¹ God's judgment upon Babylon and Chaldees, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and overboldness, 11 shall be irresistible.

¹ Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

² Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

³ Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: ⁴ I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

⁵ As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

⁶ Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

⁷ I was wroth with my people, ⁸ I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy: upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

⁹ And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, ¹⁰ neither didst remember the latter end of it.

¹¹ Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ¹² I am, and none else beside me: I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

¹³ But these two things shall come to thee ¹⁴ in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood:

they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast trusted in thy sorceries, thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 ¶ Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall he be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 God, to convince the people of their fore-known obstinacy, revealed his prophecies. 9 He saveth them for his own sake. 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence. 16 He lamenteth their backwardness. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence. 16 He lamenteth their backwardness. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel: The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 ¶ For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I; and now the LORD God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ¶ That thou hadst hearkened to my commandments: I then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, ^o isles, unto me; and ^h hearken, ye people, from far; ^{the} LORD hath called me from the womb: from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ^o my mouth like a sharp sword; ⁱⁿ the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ^a a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, ^t Thou art my servant, O Israel, ⁱⁿ whom I will be glorified.

4 ^h Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and ^{my} work with my God.

5 ^Y And now, saith the LORD ⁱ that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ^{Though} Israel ^k be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, ^{||} It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the ^{||} preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a ^{||} light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, ^{||} to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, ^{||} Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, ^o In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, ^{||} and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say ^{||} to the prisoners, Go forth: to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not ^h hunger nor thirst: ^{neither} shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them ^{shall} lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 ^{And} I will make all my mountains a way, and ^{my} highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, ^{these} shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ^Y Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 ^{But} Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 ^{Can} a woman forget her sucking child, ^{that} she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, ^{but} yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ^o I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 ^Y Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, ^{as} with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, ^{shall} even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 ^h The children which thou shalt have, ⁱ after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 ^h Thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy ^{||} nursing fathers, and their ^{||} queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and ^{||} lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for ^{||} they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 ^Y Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or ^{||} the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER L.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my hereditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord God opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER LI.

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ, 3 by reason of his comfortable promises, 4 of his righteous salvation, 7 and man's mortality. 9 Christ by his sanctified arm defendeth his from the fear of man. 17 He bewaileth the afflictions of Jerusalem, 21 and promiseth deliverance.

HEarken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD: joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the isles shall wait upon me, and upon mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore ^cthe redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he ^fthat comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid ^gof a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made ^has grass:

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, ⁱthat hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he ^jwere ready to destroy? ^kand where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that ^mdivided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And ⁿI have put my words in thy mouth, and ^oI have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, ^pthat I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ^qAwake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ^rhast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; ^sthou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons ^twhom she hath brought forth; neither is there ^uany that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 ^vThese two things ^ware come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and ^xdestruction, and the famine, and the sword: ^yby whom shall I comfort thee?

20 ^zThy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ^aTherefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, ^bbut not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy LORD the LORD, and thy God ^cthat pleadeth the cause of his people. Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But ^dI will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; ^ewhom have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAPTER LII.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, ^fto receive the ministers thereof, ^gto joy in the power thereof, ^hand to free themselves from bondage. 13 Christ's kingdom shall be exalted.

AWAKE, ^aawake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ^bthe holy city: for ^chenceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^dand the unclean.

2 ^eShake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: ^floose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ^gYe have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the LORD GOD, My people went down ^haforetime into ⁱEgypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is ^jblasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore ^kthey shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 ^lHow beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ^mThy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ⁿBreak forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: ^ofor the LORD hath comforted his people, ^phe hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 ^qThe LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ^rall the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ^sDepart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; ^tbe ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ^uye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ^vfor the LORD will go before you; ^wand the God of Israel ^xwill be your rearward.

13 ^yBehold, ^zmy servant shall deal prudently, ^ahe shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his ^bvisage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

CHAPTER LIV.

1 The prophet, complaining of incredulity, excuseth the scandal of the cross, 4 by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO ^a hath believed our ^b report? and to whom is ^c the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For ^d he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: ^e he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, ^f there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 ^g He is despised and rejected of men; ^h a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and ⁱ we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and ^j we esteemed him not.

4 ^k Surely ^l he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he ^m was ⁿ wounded for our transgressions, he ^o was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his ^p stripes we are healed.

6 ^q All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD ^r hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet ^s he opened not his mouth: ^t he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 ^u He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for ^v he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people ^w was he stricken.

9 ^x And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither ^y was any ^z deceit in his mouth.

10 ^a Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put ^b him to grief: ^c when thou shalt make his soul ^d an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, ^e he shall prolong his days, and ^f the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: ^g by his knowledge shall ^h my righteous servant ⁱ justify many; ^j for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him ^k a portion with the great, ^l and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was ^m numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and ⁿ made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER LIV.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for ^a more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 ^b Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; ^c and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 ^d For thy Maker is thine husband; The LORD of hosts ^e is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; ^f The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD ^g hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 ^h For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; ⁱ but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this ^j is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For ^k the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; ^l but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ^m O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with ⁿ fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

ness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, callecth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8
The happy success of them that believe.

HO, ^aevery one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; ^bcome ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye ^cspend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not?
hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and ^dcome unto me: hear, and your soul shall live;
and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, ^eeven the ^csure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him ^ffor a witness to the people, ^ga leader and commander to the people.

5 ^hBehold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, ⁱand nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; ^kfor he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ ^lSeek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 ^mLet the wicked forsake his way, and ⁿthe unrighteous man ^ohis thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, ^pand he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for ^qhe will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ ^rFor my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 ^sFor as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For ^tas the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 ^uSo shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 ^vFor ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall ^wbreak forth before you into singing, and ^xall the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 ^yInstead of ^zthe thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD ^afor a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification.
3 He prometheth it shall be general without respect of persons. 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

TIUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: ^afor my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; ^bthat keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let ^cthe son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant:

5 Even unto them will I give in dmino house and within my walls a place ^dand a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: ^etheir burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for ^fmine house shall be called a house of prayer ^gfor all people.

8 The LORD God ^hwhich gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, I yet will gather ⁱothers to him, ^jbesides those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ ^kAll ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

are all ignorant, ° they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; ¶ sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are ¶ greedy dogs which ¶ can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; ¶ and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAPTER LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3
God reproveth the Jews for their whorish idolatry. 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and ¶ merciful men are taken away, ¶ none considering that the righteous is taken away ¶ from the evil to come.

2 He shall ¶ enter into peace: they shall rest in ¶ their beds, each one walking ¶ in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorcerers, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue?
are ye not children of transgression,
a seed of falsehood,

5 Inflaming yourselves ¶ with idols ¶ under every green tree, ¶ slaying the children in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 ¶ Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set ¶ thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and ¶ made thee a covenant with them: thou lovedst their bed ¶ where thou sawest it.

9 And ¶ thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the ¶ life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And ¶ of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? ¶ have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fear-est me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, ¶ Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, ¶ whose name is Holy; ¶ I dwell in the high and holy place, ¶ with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, ¶ to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 ¶ For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls ¶ which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of ¶ his covet-ousness was I wroth, and smote him:
¶ I hid me, and was wroth, ¶ and he went on ¶ frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and ¶ will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create ¶ the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace ¶ to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 ¶ But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 ¶ There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAPTER LVIII.

1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true. 8 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY ¶ aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your joy ¶ in labours.

4 ¶ Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness; ¶ ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ¶ such a fast that I have chosen? ¶ if a day for a man to afflict

his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 ¶ Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rearward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and he that toucheth is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 ¶ And he saw that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 ¶ For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

CHAPTER LX.

1 ^aThe glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction.

ARISE, ^a shall shine; for thy light is come, and ^bthe glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the ^cGentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 ^aLift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, ^bthey come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at ^cthy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because ^dthe abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the ^eforces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and ^fEphah; all they from ^gSheba shall come: they shall bring ^hgold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of ⁱKedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and ^jI will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 ^kSurely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, ^lto bring thy sons from far, ^mtheir silver and their gold with them, ⁿunto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, ^obecause he hath glorified thee.

10 And ^pthe sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, ^qand their kings shall minister unto thee: for ^rin my wrath I smote thee, ^sbut in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates ^tshall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that ^umen may bring unto thee the ^vforces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 ^wFor the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 ^xThe glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make ^ythe place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^zbow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, ^{aa}The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through ^{ab}thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, ^{ac}and shalt suck the breast of kings; and thou shalt know that ^{ad}I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call ^{ae}thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The ^{af}sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and ^{ag}thy God thy glory.

20 ^{ah}Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 ^{ai}Thy people also shall be all righteous: ^{aj}they shall inherit the land for ever, ^{ak}the branch of my planting, ^{al}the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 ^{am}A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

1 The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, 10 and preparing the people thereto.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 ^a And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: ^b and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be ^c a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 ^d Thou shalt no more be termed ^e Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed ^f Desolate: but thou shalt be called ^g Hephzi-bah, and thy land ^h Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 ⁱ For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and ^j as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so ^k shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 ^l I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ^m ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no ⁿ rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ^o a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ^p Surely I will no more ^q give thy corn ^r to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it ^s in the courts of my holiness.

10 ^t Go through, go through the gates: ^u prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway: gather out the stones; ^v lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, ^w Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ^x reward is with him, and his ^y work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ^z not forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is ^a glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden in the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the Angel of his presence saved them: k in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his Holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest; so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not:

thou, O LORD, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

g Ps. 74. 7. Or, thy name was not called upon them, ch. 63. 1.

CHAPTER LXIV.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power. 6 Celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions. 9 It complaineth of their affliction.

Oh that thou wouldest read the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

CHAPTER LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their inordinability, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 3 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I AM sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not: for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sown me.

11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto them whom ye have chosen: for the LORD God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die a hundred years old; but the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and I mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church.

15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have a holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and drembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck;
he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol.
Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them;
because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear; but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delight not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word: Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing?
who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her:
rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold,
I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be daudled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother com-forteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory
among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah.
11 His prophetic visions of an almond rod and a seething pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourage him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoia-kim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a fenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 God, having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their causeless revolt, beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into ^{||} a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye ^{||} defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, ^{||} and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that ^{||} do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore ^{||} I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and ^{||} with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ^{||} over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 ^{||} Hath a nation changed their gods, which are ^{||} yet no gods? ^{||} but my people have changed their glory for

^{||} that which doth not profit.

12 ^{||} Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel ^{||} a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he ^{||} spoiled?

15 ^{||} The young lions roared upon him, and ^{||} yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and of thy head.

17 ^{||} Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when ^{||} he ° thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 ¶ How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baal-

im? See thy way ^{||} in the valley,

know what thou hast done: ^{||} thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 ¶ A wild ass ^{||} used to the wilder-

can ^{||} turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves;

in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst:

but ^{||} thou saidst, ^{||} There is no hope;

no: for I have loved ^{||} strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast

^{||} brought me forth: for they have turned ^{||} their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their ^{||} trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But ^{||} where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise,

if they ^{||} can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for ^{||} according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O

Judah.

29 ^{||} Wherefore will ye plead with me, saith the LORD.

head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAPTER III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. O Judah is worse than Israel. 13 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reproved, and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers: yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the showders have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou coudest.

6 The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you home of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they any more after the imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ^areturn unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shall thou not remove.

2 ^bAnd thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ^cin truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ^dand the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ^eglory.

3 ^fFor thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^gBreak up your fallow ground, and ^hsow not among thorns.

4 ⁱCircumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defended cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ^jretire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great ^kdestruction.

7 ^lThe lion is come up from his thicket, and ^mthe destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place ⁿto make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this ^ogird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, ^psaying, Ye shall have peace: whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, ^qA dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 ^rEven ^sa full wind from those places shall come unto me; now also ^twill I give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and ^uhis chariots shall be as a whirlwind: ^vhis horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, ^wwash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ^xfrom Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come ^yfrom a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 ^zAs keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 ^{aa}Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ^{ab}My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 ^{ac}A destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are ^{ad}my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^{ae}they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 ^{af}I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was ^{ag}without form, and void; and the heavens, and they ^{ah}had no light.

24 ^{ai}I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, ^{aj}there was no man, and ^{ak}all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this ^{al}shall the earth mourn, and ^{am}the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and ^{an}will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clovest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that ^sspreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAPTER V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews, for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

PUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^aif ye can find a man, ^bif there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth: and I will pardon it.

2 And ^athough they say, ^cThe LORD liveth; surely they ^sswear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not ^athine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^astricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ^athey have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are foolish; they are foolish: for ^athey know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^athey have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ^abroken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ^aa lion out of the forest shall slay them, ^aand a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, ^aa leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings ^aare increased.

7 ^aHow shall I pardon thee for this? ^athy children have forsaken me, and ^asworn by them that ^aare no gods: ^awhen I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 ^aThey were as fed horses in the morning: every one ^aneighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 ^aShall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: ^aand shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ^aGo ye up upon her walls, and destroy: ^abut make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For ^athe house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 ^aThey have belied the LORD, and said, ^aIt is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^aneither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^abehold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a ^anation upon you ^afrom far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine harvest and thy bread, ^awhich thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I ^awill not make a full end with you.

19 ^aAnd it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, ^aWherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have ^aforsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so ^ashall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ^afoolish people, and without ^aunderstanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 ^aFear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, ^athat giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: ^ahe reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ^aYour iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: ^athey ^alay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a || cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen || fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not || the cause, the cause of the fatherless, || yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 || Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 || || A wonderful and || horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy || falsely, and the priests || bear rule by their means; and my people || love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAPTER VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah & encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins. 18 He proclaimeth God's wrath. 25 He calleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in || Beth-haccerem: || for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a || comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; || they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 || Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up || at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 || For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and || cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 || As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: || violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest || my soul || depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 || Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their || ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, || the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD: I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out || upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And || their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to || covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have || healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, || saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they || ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the || old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find || rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set || watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 || Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 || Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even || the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 || To what purpose cometh there to me incense || from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? || your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the || north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice || roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: || anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 ¶ They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire: the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ¶ Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity. 8 He rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh. 17 He threateth them for their idolatry. 21 He rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient. 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 ¶ Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 ¶ Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt;

7 ¶ Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 ¶ Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 ¶ And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ¶ The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 ¶ Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ¶ For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ¶ But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets,

26 ¶ Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ^hhardened their neck: ⁱthey did worse than their fathers.

27. Therefore ^jthou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD thy God, ^knor receiveth ^lcorrection: ^mtruth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ⁿthey have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ^ohigh places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ^pburn their sons and their daughters in the fire; ^qwhich I commanded them not, neither ^rcame it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, ^sthe days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, nor The valley of slaughter: ^tfor they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ^ucarcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ^vcease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for ^wthe land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews, both dead and alive. 4 He upbraids their foolish and shameless impenitency. 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 18 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of the princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ^xwhom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, ^ynor be buried; they shall be for ^zdung upon the face of the earth.

3 And ^adeath shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD: Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem ^bslidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, ^cthey refuse to return.

6 ¶ I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, ^dthe stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but ^emy people know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, ^fand the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly ^gin vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 ¶ The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and ^hwhat wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore ⁱwill I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to ^jcovetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have ^khealed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, ^lPeace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ^mashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes ⁿon the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? ^oassemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us ^pwater of ^qgall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We ^rlooked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

heard from ^a Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his ^b strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and ^c fall that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be ^c charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint ^d in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people ^e because of them that dwell in ^f a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they ^g provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 ¶ For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am ^h black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no ⁱ balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people ^j recovered?

CHAPTER IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity. 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God. 25 He threatneth both Jews and Gentiles.

¶ O II ^a that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for ^b they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And ^c they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they ^d know not me, saith the LORD.

4 ^e Take ye heed every one of his ^f neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will ^g walk with slanders.

5 And they will ^h deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, ⁱ I will melt them, and try them; ^j for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh ^k deceit: ^l one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but ^m in heart he layeth ⁿ his wait.

9 ¶ Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and ^o for the ^p habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are ^q burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: ^r both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem ^s heaps, and ^t a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah ^u desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ ^v Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and ^w who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have ^x walked after the ^y imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, ^z which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will ^a feed them, even this people, ^b with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will ^c scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: ^d and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for ^e the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning ^f women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that ^g our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because ^h our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off ⁱ the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall ^j as dung upon the open field, and and the children of Ammon, and most corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER X.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols. 17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come. 10 He lan-guisheth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish pastors. 25 He maketh an humble supplication.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, "Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for he cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not; they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear thee, O
King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as I among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether like brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder:
blue and purple is their clothing;
they are all the work of cunning
men.

10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 ¶ Thus shalt ye say unto them,
"The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 "When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in
the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 ¶ Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

17 ¶ Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so.

19 ¶ "Woe is me for my hurt!
my wound is grievous: but I said,
"Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

20 "My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD:
therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 ¶ O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 ¶ Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him,
and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, & rebuketh the Jews' disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; ^aCursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, ^bfrom the iron furnace, saying, ^cObey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the ^doath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said,

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, ^eand do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, ^frising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 ^gYet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but ^hwalked every one in the ⁱimagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ⁱA conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to ^kthe iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able ^lto escape; and ^mthough they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and ⁿcry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their ^otrouble.

13 For according to the number of thy ^pcities were thy gods, ^qJudah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to ^rthat ^sshameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore ^tpray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their ^utrouble.

15 ^vWhat hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and ^wthe holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, ^xA green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ^ythat planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewest me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I know not that ^zthey had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy ^athe tree with the fruit thereof, ^band let us cut him off from ^cthe land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that ^dtriest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, ^ethat seek thy life, saying, ^fProphesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will ^gpunish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even ^hthe year of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jeremiah, complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. 5 God admonisheth him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritings. 14 He promiseth to the penitent return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS ^aart thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet ^blet me talk with thee of thy judgments: ^cWherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? ^dwherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; if he crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate they mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people. 12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery. 13 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah, complaining of their spite, receiveth a promise of ^khimself, 12 and a threatening for them. 15 He propheth, 19 and receiv-eth a gracious promise.

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^aThough ^bMoses and ^cSamuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD: ^dSuch as are for death, to death: and such as are for the sword, to the sword: and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will ^eappoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And ^fI will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of ^gManasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For ^hwho shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall be-hoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward:
therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; ⁱand
I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of ^jchildren, I will destroy my people, since ^kthey return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them ^lagainst the mother of the young men a spoiler fall upon it suddenly, and terrors guisheth: she hath given up the ghost; ⁿher sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury;
yet every one of them doth curse
me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily ^oI will cause ^pthe enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern venge me of my persecutors: take

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The prophet, under the types of abstain-ing from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foretelleth the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt. 16
God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

about 601.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land:

4 They shall die of ^a grievous deaths:
they shall not be ^b lamented; neither shall they be buried: but they shall be ^c as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, ^c Enter not into the house of ^d mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men [†] tear themselves, for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them,
^m Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done ⁿ worse than your fathers; for, behold, ^o ye walk every one after the ^p imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 ¶ Therefore will I cast you out of this land ^q into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers: and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the ^r days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them; and ^s I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many ^t fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine ^u eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin ^v double; because ^w they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, ^x my strength, and my fortress, and ^y my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things ^z wherein there is no profit.

himself, and ^a they are no gods?

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God.
15 The prophet complaineth of the mock-ers of his prophecy. 19 He is sent to renew the covenant in hallowing the sabbath.

THE sin of Judah is written with a ^a pen of iron, and with the † point of a diamond: it is b graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their ^c groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, d I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even ^e thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ^f the land which thou knowest not: for ^g ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; ^h Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ⁱ flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be ^j like the heath in the desert, and ^k shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ^l in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 ^m Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be ⁿ as a tree planted by the waters, and ^o that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ^p drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¶ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD ^q search the heart, I try the reins, ^r even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge ^s sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth ^t them not; so he that getteth riches, and not ^u by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ^v a fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, ^w the hope of Israel, ^x that forsoke thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ^y written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the ^z fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved:

for ^a thou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, ^b Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, ^c I have not hastened from being a pastor ^d to follow thee:
neither have I desired the woful day;
thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me; ^e thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 ¶ Let them be confounded that persecute me, but ^f let not me be dismayed; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ^g destroy them with double destruction.

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, ^h Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD; ⁱ Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 ^k Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they,
and their princes, the men of Judah,
and the inhabitants of Jerusalem:
and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from ^l the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from ^m the plain, and from the mountains, and from ⁿ the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing ^o sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then ^p will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, ^q and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah for her strange revolt. 18 Jeremiah prayeth against his conspirators.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten, I know, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword: and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me: to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAPTER XIX.

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is foreshewed the desolation of the Jews for their sins.

THUS saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee:

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives; and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city ¹ desolate, and a hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the ² flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 ³ Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁴ Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot ⁵ be made whole again; and they shall ⁶ bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled ⁷ as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose ⁸ roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and ⁹ have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in ¹⁰ the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because ¹¹ they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

NOW Pashur the son of ¹ Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but ² Magor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive unto Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I ³ will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast ⁴ prophesied lies.

7 ⁵ O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was ⁶ deceived: ⁷ thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: ⁸ I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, ⁹ I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a ¹⁰ burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and ¹¹ I could not stay.

10 ¹² For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. ¹³ All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But ¹⁴ the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not ¹⁵ prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their ¹⁶ everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that ¹⁷ triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, ¹⁸ let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for ¹⁹ he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil doers.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to inquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. 3 Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. 8 He counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 11 and upbraideth the king's house.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him^a Pashur the son of Melchiah, and^b Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2^c Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3^d Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and^e I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an^f outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; ^ghe shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8^h And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He thatⁱ abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and^k his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have^l set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: ^mit shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shallⁿ burn it with fire.

11^o And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; ^pExecute judgment^q in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, ^rI am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, ^sWho shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will^t punish you according to the^u fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and^v it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^wHear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^xExecute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and^y do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ^zthen shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting^a upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, ^bI swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down^c thy choice cedars, ^dand cast them into the fire.

inhabitors.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ^b Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ^c Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for ^k the dead, neither bemoan him; ^{but} weep sore for him ^l that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching ^m Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, ⁿ which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; ^p that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ^q large chambers, and cutteth him out ^r windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest ^s thyself in cedar? ^t didst not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then ^u it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 ^v But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ^w violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; ^x They shall not lament for him, saying, ^y Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, ^z Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 ^a He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy ^b prosperity; ^{but} thou saidst, I will not hear. ^c This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all ^d thy pastors, and ^e thy lovers shall go in to captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O ^f inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, ^g the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 ^h As I live, saith the LORD, ⁱ though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^j were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 ^k And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of ^l them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ^m And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they ⁿ desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 ^o Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? ^p is he ^q a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 ^r O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man ^s childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, ^t sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 ^u He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock. 5 ^v Christ shall rule and save them. 9 ^w Against false prophets, 33 and mockers of the true prophets.

WOE ^a be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: ^b behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And ^c I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up ^d shepherds over them which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold, ^e the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, ^f and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 ^g In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel ^h shall dwell safely: and this ⁱ is his name whereby he shall be called, ^j THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, ^k the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; 8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ^mall my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ⁿthe land is full of adulterers; ^obecause of ^pswearing the land mourneth; ^qthe pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ^rcourse is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^sboth prophet and priest are profane; yea, ^tin my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 ^uWherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I ^vwill bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen ^wfolly in the prophets of Samaria; ^xthey prophesied in Baal, and ^ycaused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^za horrible thing: ^athey commit adultery, and ^bwalk in lies: they ^cstrengthen also the hands of evil doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^dSodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with ^ewormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ^fprofaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they make you vain: ^gthey speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^hCe shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ⁱimagination of his own heart, ^jNo evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^kwho hath stood in the ^lcounsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^mwhirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ⁿin the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had ^ostood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have ^pturned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^qhide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. ^rDo not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall ^sthis be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, ^tthey are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, ^uas their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet ^vthat hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, ^wI am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, ^xthat use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by ^ytheir lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is ^zthe burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? ^aI will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And ^bas for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even ^cpunish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more; for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the 37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, he foreseweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jecoliah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, for they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge thee that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil: surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them to the removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Jeremiah reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 8 foretelleth the seventy years' captivity, 12 and after that, the destruction of Babylon. 15 Under the type of a cup of wine he foreseweth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon:

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, arising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride,

¶ And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when ^m seventy years are accomplished, that I will ⁿ punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, ^o and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 ¶ For many nations ^p and great kings shall ^q serve themselves of them also: ^r and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the ^s wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And ^t they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them ^u a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and ^v a curse; as it is this day;

19 ¶ Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all ^w the mingled people, and all the kings of ^x the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and ^y the remnant of Ashdod,

21 ^z Edom, and ^a Moab, and the children of ^b Ammon,

22 And all the kings of ^c Tyros, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ^d isles which are beyond the sea,

23 ^e Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all ^f that are in the utmost corners,

24 And ^g all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the ^h mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of ⁱ Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 ¶ And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: ^j and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ^k Drink ye, and ^l be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, ^m I begin to bring evil on the city ⁿ which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for ^o I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall ^p roar from on high, and utter his voice from ^q his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon ^r his habitation; he shall give ^s a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath ^t a controversy with the nations: ^u he will plead with all flesh; he will give them ^v that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and ^w a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 ¶ And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ^x one end of the earth even unto the ^y other end of the earth: they shall not be ^z lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ¶ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for ^a the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like ^b a pleasant vessel.

35 And ^c the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and a howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken ^d his covert, as the lion: for their land is ^e desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered round Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now lament your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesied the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets. The like he doth to Zedekiah. The foretelling, the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me: Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah:

4 And command them ¹ to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ² I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 ³ And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ⁴ my servant; and ⁵ the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ⁶ And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ⁷ until the very time of his land come: ⁸ and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, ⁹ that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your ¹⁰ dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 ¹¹ For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¹² ¶ I spake also to ¹³ Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 ¹⁴ Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy ¹⁵ a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy ¹⁶ a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, ¹⁷ the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¹⁹ ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts ²⁰ concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city.

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away ²¹ captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem:

22 They shall be ²³ carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I ²⁴ visit them, saith the LORD: then ²⁵ will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah, seeking it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke. 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND ¹ it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken ³ the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 ⁴ Within ⁵ two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the ⁶ captives of Judah, that went into Babylon,

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, and that they shall return with grace after seventy years. 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elashah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying, 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ¶ For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up, prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity:

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolsiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 ¶ And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in prison, and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 2 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

my servant Jacob, saith the LORD: neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed I from the land of their captivity: and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governors shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: sin the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel. 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rachel mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting is brought home again. 22 Christ is promised. 27 His care over the church. 31 His new covenant. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the church.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD; I sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD: "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity: "The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks,

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Babel unto the gate of the corner.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, ^obuyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ^ain the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^bin the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ^cBehold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah ^dshall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes:

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ^euntil I visit him, saith the LORD: ^fthough ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?

6 ^g¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the ^hright of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ⁱweighed him the money, even ^jseventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ^kBaruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^lwitnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ^m¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards ⁿshall be possessed again in this land.

16 ^o¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, ^pthou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, ^qand ^rthere is nothing ^stoo hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^tlovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after thee: The Great, ^uThe Mighty God, ^vThe Lord of hosts, ^wis his name;

19 ^xGreat in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine ^yeyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, ^zto give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee ^aa name, as at this day:

21 And ^bthou hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^ca land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but ^dthey obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law: they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the ^emounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city ^fis given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; ¶ for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, 27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day, that I should remove it from before my face;

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, I, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast: it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 God prometh to the captivity a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ the Branch of righteousness, 17 a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 20 and a stability of a blessed seed.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; ¶ The LORD is his name;

3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD: Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast.

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our Righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel:

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD: If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season:

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne: and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD: If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bondservants, contrary to the covenant of God, reassume them. 19 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, sought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and thou shalt speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ^c Zephaniah the son of Maaschiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then ^d Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ^e and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, ^f that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 ^g And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9. Thus saith the LORD: Deceive not ^h yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 ⁱ For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but ^j wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was ^k broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, ^l to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is ^m false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ⁿ and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into ^o the dungeon, and into the ^p cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there ^q any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: ^r let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah ^s into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ^t until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah. ^u Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and ^v Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and ^w Pashur the son of Malchiah, ^x heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^y He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^z This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the ^{aa} welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 ^{ab} Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son ^{ac} of Hanimelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and I he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing: hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 4 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city is ruined, 9 the people captivated. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 b Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushashan, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XL.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair unto him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, ^aafter that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. ^aIf it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and [†]I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, ^call the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ^fwhom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 ¶ Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Machathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan:

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purpoeth with the residue to flee unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and mindeth to flee into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah: and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and beset Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Ged-aliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it.

5 That there came certain from Shechem, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having ent themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Netha-

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down; and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the Lord: I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the Lord your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the Lord, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt; and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 20 and for a sign prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein;

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the † wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not † humbled even unto this day, neither have they ^m feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, ⁿ I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ^o they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt: they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and ^p they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 ^q For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for ^r none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ^s we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do ^t whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ^u "queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ^v victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all ^w things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 ^x And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our ^y men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ^y a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, ^z as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; ^a therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah ^b that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: ^c Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ^d I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that ^e my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 ^f Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that ^g are in the land of Egypt ^h shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ⁱ a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose ^j words shall stand, ^k mine, or theirs.

29 ¶ And this ^l shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall ^m surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ⁿ I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave ^o Zedekiah king

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch:

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus: Behold, ^bthat which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, ^cI will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee ^dfor a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 21 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against ^ethe Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are ^fbeaten down, and are ^gfled apace, and look not back: for ^hfear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall ⁱstumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up ^jas a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; ^kthe Ethiopians and

† the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, ^lthat handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is ^mthe day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and ⁿthe sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts ^ohath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, ^pO virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for ^qthou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and ^rsmite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, ^sStand fast, and prepare thee; for ^tthe sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He ^umade many to fall, yea, ^vone fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, ^wwhose name is The LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O ^xthou daughter dwelling in Egypt, ^yfurnish thyself ^zto go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair ^{aa}heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh ^{ab}out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like ^{ac}fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because ^{ad}the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 ^{ae}The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall ^{af}cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than ^{ag}the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of ^{ah}the people of the north.

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands:

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of the Caphtor.

5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long wilt it be ere thou be quiet? I put up myself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, for their pride, for their security, for their carnal confidence, and for their contempt of God and his people. 47 The restoration of Moab.

AGAINST Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up: for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the deer in the wilderness.

7 For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, and shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence.

14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and her chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

b Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for ^c the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O ^d inhabitant of ^e Arcer, ^f stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down; ^g howl and cry; tell ye it in ^h Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgment is come upon ⁱ the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon ^j Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 ^k The horn of Moab is cut off, and his ^l arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ^m Make ye him drunken; for he magnified ⁿ himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For ^o was not Israel a derision unto thee? ^p was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou ^q skippest for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and ^r dwell in the rock, and be like ^s the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the ^t pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; ^u his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore ^v will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 ^w O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach ^x even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And ^y joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 ^z From the cry of Heshbon ^a even unto Elenach, and ^b even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, ^c from Zoar ^d even unto Horonaim, as a hoifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be ^e desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, ^f him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore ^g mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because ^h the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For ⁱ every head shall be bald, and every beard ^j clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and ^k upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like ^l a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the ^m back with shame! ⁿ so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^o he shall fly as an eagle, and shall ^p spread his wings over Moab.

41 ^q Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and ^r the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed ^s from being a people, because he hath magnified ^t himself against the LORD.

43 ^u Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ^v I will bring upon it, ^w even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but ^x a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and ^y shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the ^z tumultuous ones.

46 ^a Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken ^b captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 ^c Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab ^d in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

1 ^a CONCERNING ^b the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth ^c their king inherit ^d Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^e Rabbah of the Ammonites: and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for || their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, || thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, ⁵ saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee;
and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And hitherward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished?

8 ⁹ Flee ye, || turn back, dwell deep,
O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If ¹⁰ grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, they will destroy || till they have enough.

10 ¹¹ But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For ¹⁴ I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: ¹⁷ though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, ¹⁸ I will bring thee down from thence,
saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation:
every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 ¹⁹ As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 ²⁰ Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong;
but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her?
for who is like me? and who will || appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 ²¹ Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 ²² The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow || on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 ²⁷ Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith
the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD:
Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil
the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, I get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

casts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; ^aand I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will ^bset my throne in

LORD.

CHAPTER L.

1, 2, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

[†] THE word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans [†]by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and ^aset up a standard;
publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^bBel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces: ^cher idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^aFor out of the north there cometh up ^aa nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 [†] In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, ^athey and the children of Judah together, ^agoing and weeping: they shall go, ^aand seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying,

Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ^alost sheep:
their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on ^athe mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.

7 All that found them have ^adevoured them: and ^atheir adversaries said, "We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^bthe habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 [†] Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 [†] For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^aset themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty [†]expert man; ^anone shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^aall that spoil her shall be satisfied,
saith the LORD.

11 ^aBecause ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown ^afat ^aas the heifer at grass, and ^abellows as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindmost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ^abut it shall be wholly desolate: ^aevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^aPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye ^athat bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about:
she hath ^agiven her hand: her foundations are fallen, ^aher walls are thrown down: for ^ait is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^ahas she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^athey shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 [†] Israel is ^aa scattered sheep:
the lions have driven him away:
first ^athe king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this ^a"Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold,
I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 ^a And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ^b the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them ^c whom I reserve.

21 ^d Go up against the land ^e of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^f Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do ^g according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 ^h A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 ⁱ How is ^j the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken!
how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ^k and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ^l the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her ^m from the utmost border, open her storehouses:
ⁿ cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ^o bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ^p their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ^q to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ^r all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^s recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ^t for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy
One of Israel.

30 ^u Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith
the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou ^v most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for ^w thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And ^x the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and ^y I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ^z Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ^a Their Redeemer is strong; ^b the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ^c A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon ^d her wise men.

36 ^e A sword is ^f upon the ^g liars; and they shall hate: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 ^h A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ⁱ the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and ^j they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ^k A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of ^l graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ^m Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: ⁿ and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ^o As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ^p Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 ^q They shall hold the bow and the lance: ^r they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: ^s their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee,
O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: ^t anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 ^u Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will ^v appoint me the time? and who is 45 Therefore hear ye ^w the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken that he hath purposed against the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

CHAPTER LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon
b fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth a let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
he will render unto her a recompense.

7 k Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her,
and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn † by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillars:
and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice,
there is a multitude of waters in
the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and
there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work
of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces fold and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen;
and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her,
call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations with ²the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, ³to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: they might hath failed; ⁴they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; ⁵her bars are broken.

31 ^dOne post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,

32 And that ^ethe passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is ^flike a threshingfloor, ^git is time to thresh her: yet a little while, ^hand the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath ⁱdevoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 ^jThe violence done to me and to my ^kflesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say: and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldaea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, ^kI will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; ^land I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 ^mAnd Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, ⁿan astonishment, and a hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall roar ^oyeil as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and ^pI will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is ^qSheshach taken! and how is ^rthe praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 ^sThe sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 ^tHer cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 ^uAnd I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, ^vthe wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 ^wMy people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And ^xlest your heart faint, and ye fear ^yfor the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that ^zI will ¹do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then ^athe heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: ^bfor the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 ^cAs Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all ^dthe earth.

50 ^eYe that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 ^fWe are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces; for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, ^gthat I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 ^hThough Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 ⁱA sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: ^jfor the LORD God of recompenses shall surely requite.

57 ^kAnd I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith ^lthe

THE

LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin. 12 She complaineth of her grief, 18 and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! a how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and b princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She c weepeth sore in the d night, and her tears are on her cheeks:
e among all her lovers f she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they are become her enemies.

3 g Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and † because of great servitude: h she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries i are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her k for the multitude of her transgressions: her l children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

tar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath † given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; † they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: † he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from † destroying; therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and † broken her bars: † her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: † the law is no more; her † prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion † sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have † cast up dust upon their heads; they have † girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 † Mine eyes do fail with tears, † my bowels are troubled, † my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because † the children and the sucklings † swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? † what thing shall I liken to thee? † O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: thy cho can heal thee?

14 Thy † prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not † discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 † All that pass † by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call † The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 † All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, † We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, † we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had † devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: † he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied; and he hath caused † thine enemy to † rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O † wall of the daughter of Zion, † let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, † cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches † pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, † that faint for hunger † in the top of every street.

20 † Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. † Shall the women eat their fruit, and children † of a span long? † shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 † The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; † thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day † my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: † those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, and vengeance on their enemies.

† AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned: he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 † My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath † broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 † He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 † He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also † when I cry and shout, he shuteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths crooked.

10 † He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and † pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and † set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused † the † arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was † a † derision to all my people; and † their song all the day.

15 † He hath filled me with † bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

6 For the ^gpunishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom; that was ^hoverthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of saphire:

8 Their visage is ⁱblacker than a coal: they are not known in the streets: ^jtheir skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar. 4 His vision of four cherubim, 15 of the four wheels, 20 and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ¹captives ¹by the river of Chebar, that ¹the heavens were opened, and I saw ¹visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of ¹king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto ¹Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and ¹the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¹And I looked, and, behold, ¹a whirlwind came ¹out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire ¹involving itself, and a brightness ¹was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 ¹Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And ¹this was their appearance; they had ¹the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were ¹straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled ¹like the colour of burnished brass.

8 ¹And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ¹Their wings were joined one to another; ¹they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for ¹the likeness of their faces, they four ¹had the face of a man, ¹and the face of a lion, on the right side; ¹and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ¹they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were ¹stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ¹two covered their bodies.

12 And ¹they went every one straight forward: ¹whither the spirit was to go, they went; and ¹they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ¹and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures bran and returned ¹as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¹Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ¹one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ¹The appearance of the wheels and their work was ¹like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ¹and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ¹rings were ¹full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ¹when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ¹Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was ¹their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ¹for the spirit ¹of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ¹When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: ¹for the spirit ¹of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 ¹And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ¹And when they went, I heard

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that ^rwas over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ^tAnd above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ^uas the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne ^vwas the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^tAnd I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^uAs the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so ^vwas the appearance of the brightness round about. ^xThis ^ywas the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^zI fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission. 6 His instruction. 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^astand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^bthe spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ^cnation that hath rebelled against me: ^dthey and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^dFor they are ^eimpudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 ^fAnd they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^gI shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ^hAnd thou, son of man, ⁱbe not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^jbe briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^kbe not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ^lthough they be a rebellious house.

7 ^mAnd thou shalt speak my words unto them, ⁿwhether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are ^omost rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^peat that I give thee.

9 ^qAnd when I looked, behold, ^ra hand ^swas sent unto me; and, lo, ^ta roll of a book ^uwas therein;

10 And he spread it before me; and it ^vwas written within and without: and there ^wwas written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 16 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, ^aSon of man, eat that thou findest; ^beat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^ceat it; and it was in my mouth ^das honey for sweetness.

4 ^eAnd he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou ^fart not sent to a people ^gof a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people ^hof a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. ⁱSurely, ^jhad I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; ^kfor they will not hearken unto me: ^lfor all the house of Israel are ^mimpudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ⁿAs an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: ^ohear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, ^pThus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then ^qthe spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that ^rtouch one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So ^sthe spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went ^tin bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 ¶ Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine
hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thine
hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned;
also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar:
and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Under the type of a siege is showed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity. 9 By the provision of the siege, is showed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thine eye from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side: three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of a hin:
from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, ⁵is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, ^aand cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee three balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 ^bThou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of ^cthe city, when ^dthe days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind: and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 ^eThou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy ^fskirts.

4 Then take of them again, and feast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 ^gThou saith the Lord God: This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, ^hneither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 ⁱAnd I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers ^jshall eat

the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I ^kscatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God: Surely, because thou hast ^ldefiled my sanctuary with all thy ^mdetestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; ⁿneither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ^oThou shalt die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and ^pI will scatter a third part into all the winds, and ^qI will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger ^rbe accomplished, and I will ^scause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover ^tI will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a ^ureproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in ^vfurious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall ^wsend upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your ^xstaff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and ^yevil beasts, and they shall be-leave thee; and ^zpestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^aset thy face toward the ^bmountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and ^cI will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your ^dimages shall be broken: and ^eI will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God: Sinite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward ^s Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies despoil the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel: An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God: An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: I watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs: neither shall there be wailing for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return: neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

18 They shall also ^agird themselves with sackcloth, and ^bhorror shall cover them; and shame ^cshall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be ^dremoved: their ^esilver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: ^fbecause it is ^gthe stumblingblock of their iniquity.

20 ^h¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: ⁱbut they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I ^jset it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the ^krobbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ^l¶ Make a chain: for ^mthe land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

26 ^p¶ Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; ^qthen shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and ^raccording to their deserts will I judge them; ^sand they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is showed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tammuz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and ^tthe elders of Judah sat before me, that ^uthe hand of the LORD God fell there upon me.

2 ^v¶ Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^was the colour of amber.

3 And he ^xput forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and ^ythe spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and ^zbrought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; ^awhere was the seat of the image of jealousy, which ^bprovoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^csaw in the plain.

5 ^d¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ^e¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, ^fThe LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ^g¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ^h¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ⁱbetween the porch and the altar, ^jwere about five and twenty men, ^kwith their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? ¶ Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have defiled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 ¶ Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A vision, whereby is showed the preservation of some, 5 and the destruction of the rest. 8 God cannot be entreated for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand: and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side; and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubim.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubim there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in: and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 ¶ Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubim's wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim unto the fire that was between the cherubim, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness; as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the Lord departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.

19 And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the Lord's house; and the glory of the Lord of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubim.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The presumption of the princes. 4 Their sin and judgment. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the Lord's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people,

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak: Thus saith the Lord; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall know that I am the Lord: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the Lord: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put ^aa new spirit within you; and I will take ^athe stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh:

20 ^bThat they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ^cand they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubim ^elift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ^fthe glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^gupon the mountain ^hwhich is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards ⁱthe spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing. 8 He shewed the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation. 21 The Jews' presumptuous proverb is reproved. 20 The speediness of the vision.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of ^aa rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: ^cfor they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee ^dstuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, ^fas they that go forth into captivity.

5 ^g¶ Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou ^hbear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: ⁱfor I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I ^jdigged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, ^kthe rebellious house, said unto thee, ^lWhat doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: This ^mburden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, ⁿI am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: ^othey shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And ^pthe prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and ^qI will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And ^rI will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and ^sI will draw out the sword after them.

15 ¶ And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 ¶ But I will leave ^ta few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^ueat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may ^vbe desolate from ^wall that is therein, ^xbecause of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, ^y"The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?"

25 For I am the Lord: I will speak, and * the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 ¶ Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

27 b Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is c for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their untempered mortar. 17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto * them that prophesy out of their own b hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

3 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that † follow their own spirit, † and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are c like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye d have not gone up into the † gaps, neither † made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.

6 e They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it: albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, f neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; hand ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, i Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up † a wall, and, lo, others k daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: i there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: m and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which n see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, o set thy face against the daughters of thy people, p which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all q armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye r hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people s for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls t to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; u and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God answereth idolaters according to their own heart. 6 They are exhorted to repent, for fear of judgments, by means of seduced prophets. 13 God's irrevocable sentence of famine, 15 of noisome beasts, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence. 23 A remnant shall be reserved for example of others.

THEN ^a came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put ^b the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: ^c should I be inquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God: Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh, according to the multitude of his idols:

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God: Repent, and turn ^d yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

8 And ^e I will set my face against that man, and will make him ^f a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD ^g have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; ^h but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the LORD God.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the ⁱ staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 I Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver ^j but their own souls ^k by their righteousness, saith the LORD God.

15 ¶ If I cause ^l noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they ^m spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 ⁿ Though these three men were ^o in it, as I live, saith the LORD God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if ^p I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I ^q cut off man and beast from it:

18 ^r Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the LORD God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 Or if ^s I send ^t a pestilence into that land, and ^u pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 ^v Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the LORD God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter: they shall ^w but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the LORD God; ^x How much more when ^y I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, ^z both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ^{aa} ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done ^{ab} without cause all that I have done in it, saith the LORD God.

CHAPTER XV.

1 By the unfitness of the vine branch for any work ⁶ it is shewed the rejection of Jerusalem.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, ^a it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. ^f Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was ^f meet for no work; how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 [†] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And ^b I will set my face against them; ^c they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; ^d and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have ^f committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 15 Her monstrous whoredom. 35 Her grievous judgment. 44 Her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, call eth for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

A GAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, ^a cause Jerusalem to know her abominations.

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem: Thy ^f birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; ^c thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother a Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^d in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water [†] to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 [†] And when I passed by thee, and saw thee [†] polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 [°] I have ^f caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [†] excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; ^f and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and ^g thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy [†] blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I [†] put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy [†] forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; ^k thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding [†] beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And ^m thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ⁿ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, ^o and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 ^p And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: ^q the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images [†] of men, and didst commit whoredom with them.

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 ^r My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, ^s wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for ^t a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20 [†] Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them [†] to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, it is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for revolting from Babylon to Egypt. 22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^aA great eagle with great wings, long winged, full of feathers, which had ^bdivers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ^btook the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and ^cplanted it in ^aa fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^das a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine ^eof low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, ^fthis vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good ^gsoil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God: Shall it prosper? ^hshall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, ⁱbeing planted, shall it prosper? ^jshall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ^kMoreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to ^lthe rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, ^kthe king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 ^mAnd hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, ⁿand hath ^otaken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be ^pbase, that it might not lift itself up, ^qbut that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes. 5 He sheweth how he dealeth with a just father: 10 with a wicked son of a just father: 14 with a just son of a wicked father: 19 with a wicked man ^c repenting: 24 with a just man revolting. 25 He defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: ^d the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 But if a man be just, and do ^e that which is lawful and right,

6 And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath ^f defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to ^g a menstruous woman,

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his ^h pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath ⁱ given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon ^j usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, ^k hath executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly: he is just, he shall surely ^l live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a ^m robber, ⁿ a shedder of blood, and ^o that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath ^p committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ^q his ^r blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, iquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even ^h he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 ^a The soul that sinneth, it shall die. ⁴ The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: ^a the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, ^x and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But ^y if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 ^a All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 ^a Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But ^b when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? ^c All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, ^d The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ^e When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, ^f when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he ^g considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ^h Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. ^k Repent, and turn ^l yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a ^m new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For ^a I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn ^l yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit, 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine.

MOREOVER, ^a take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: ^b it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of ^c Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took ^d another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 ^e And he went up and down among the lions, (he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

8 ^g Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: ^h he was taken in their pit.

9 ⁱ And they put him in ward ^j in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon ^k the mountains of Israel.

10 ^l Thy mother is ^m like a vine ⁿ in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was ^o fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her ^p stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the ^q cast wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

CHAPTER XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 35 Under the name of a forest he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God: Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the LORD God, I will not be inquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou I judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? I cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God: In the day when I chose Israel, and I lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 ¶ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 ¶ And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 ¶ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 ¶ Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 ¶ Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the LORD your God: I walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 ¶ And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 ¶ Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries:

24 ¶ Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh ^d from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it ^e shall not return any more.

6 † Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and ^g all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees [†] shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the LORD GOD.

8 † Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD: Say, ^h A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? [†] it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of ⁱ the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: [†] terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: ^k smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 † Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? ^m it shall be no more, saith the LORD GOD.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and ⁿ smite thine [†] hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their ^o privy chambers.

15 I have set the [†] point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! ^p it is made bright, it is [†] wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 ^q Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, [†] or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also ^r smite mine hands together, and ^s I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 † The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ^t Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the [†] parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made ^{his} [†] arrows bright, he consulted with [†] images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint [†] captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to ^u lift up the voice with shouting, ^x to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, [†] to them that ^y have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD: Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, [†] I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 † And thou, ^z profane wicked prince of Israel, ^z whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end,

26 Thus saith the LORD GOD: Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: ^z exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 † I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: ^a and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 † And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the LORD GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, ^b The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 While they see vanity unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, ^c whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 † Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? ^d I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ^k in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will ^e pour out mine indignation upon thee: I will ^m blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of [†] brutish men, and skillful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire: thy blood shall be in the midst of the land: [†] thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 13 God will burn them as dross in his furnace. 23 The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the LORD God; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed. 6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

23 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor raised upon in the day of indignation.

25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untimpered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were ^atwo women, the daughters of one mother: 3 And ^bthey committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in ^ctheir youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and ^dthey were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is

|| Aholah, and Jerusalem || Aholibah. 5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^ethe Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ^fcommitted her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ^gthe chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought ^hfrom Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ⁱAssyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^jdiscovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^kfamous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And ^lwhen her sister Aholibah saw this, ^mthat she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms ⁿmore than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^oAssyrians her neighbours, ^pcaptains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermillion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 ^qAnd as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldaen.

17 And the ^rBabylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and ^sher mind was ^talienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ^umy mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, ^vwherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, ^wwhose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ^xTherefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; ^yBehold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ^zPekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: ^{aa}all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 ^{ab}They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy ^{ac}fair jewels.

27 Thus ^{ad}I will make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and ^{ae}thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

	CHAPTER XXIV.	Nab. 3, 10.
	1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is showed the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 19 is showed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.
	AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
	2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ² this same day.
	3 ¶ And unto a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ³ Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water in to it;
	4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.
	5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.
	6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to ⁶ the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no ⁶ lot fall upon it.

God; ⁹Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.
10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it,

12 She hath wearied herself with mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 † Forbear to cry, ¹⁷make no morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was 19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, cometh, ²⁴ye shall know that I am the

CHAPTER XXV.

1 God's vengeance, for their insolency against the Jews, upon the Ammonites;
8 upon Moab and Seir; 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God;

thee to the men of the east for a palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ⁵Rabbah ⁵a stable for camels, and the Ammon-ites a couching place for flocks: ⁵and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord God;
Because thou ⁶hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and ⁶rejoiced in thine heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will ⁷stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for ⁷a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because that ⁸Moab and ⁸Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Tyrrus, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened. 7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ° because that Tyrrus hath said against Jerusalem, ¶ Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God; Behold, I am against thee, O
Tyrrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrrus, and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and ° make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets d in the midst of the sea:
for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword;
° and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God;
Behold, I will bring upon Tyrrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, † a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall ° make a fort against thee, and || cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee:
thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, † as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy † thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 ¶ And I will cause the noise of † thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And ¶ I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrrus; Shall not the isles † shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the ° princes of the sea shall ° come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with † trembling; ° they shall sit upon the ground, and ° shall tremble at every moment, and ° be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a † lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited † of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast ° strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall † the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God;

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyrus. 28 The great and unrecoverable fall thereof.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, ^atake up ^alamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, ^bO thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art ^ca merchant of the people for many isles. Thus saith the Lord God; O Tyrus, thou hast said, ^dI am [†]† of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the [†]midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have [†]made all thy [†]ship boards of fir trees of ^eSenir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; [†]† the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of [†]the isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: [†]blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of ^eGebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy [†]† calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of ^hPhut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadim were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made [†]thy beauty perfect.

12 ^kTarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all [†]kind of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 [†]Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded [†]in the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy [†]market.

14 They of the house of ⁿTogarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of ^oDedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present, horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of [†]the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and [†]agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market [†]wheat of [†]Min-nith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and [†]† balin.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan [†]going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 [†]Dedan was thy merchant in [†]precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of [†]Kedar, [†]† they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of [†]Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 [†]Maran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of [†]Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in [†]all sorts of things, in blue [†]clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 [†]The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious [†]in the midst of the seas.

26 [†]Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: [†]b the east wind hath broken thee in the [†]midst of the seas.

27 Thy [†]riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, [†]and in all thy company which [†]in the midst of thee, shall fall into the [†]midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The [†]suburbs [†]shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And [†]all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cease up dust upon their heads, they [†]shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall [†]make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadrezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: but I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon: and he shall take her multitude, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^aHowl ye, Woe worth the day!

3 For ^bthe day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great ^cpain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they ^dshall take away her multitude, and ^eher foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and ^fLibya, and Lydia, and ^gall the mingled people, and Chub, and the ^hmen of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: ⁱfrom the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 ^jAnd they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that ^kI am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and ^lwhen all her helpers shall be ^mdestroyed.

9 In that day ⁿshall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; ^oI will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, ^pthe terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And ^qI will make the rivers ^rdry, and ^ssell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and ^tall that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also ^udestroy the idols, and I will cause ^vtheir images to cease out of Noph; ^wand there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: ^xI and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make ^yPathros desolate, and will set fire in ^zthe Zoan, ^aand will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon ^bSin, the strength of Egypt; and ^cI will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will ^dset fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of ^eAven and of ^fPi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these ^gcities shall go into captivity.

18 ^hAt Tehaphnehes also the day shall be ⁱdarkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that ^jI am the LORD.

20 ^kAnd it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have ^lbroken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, ^mit shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will ⁿbreak his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 ^oAnd I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and ^pthey shall know that ^qI am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 ^rAnd I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that ^sI am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ^aWhom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ^bBehold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon ^cwith fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of a high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ^dThe waters ^emade him great, the deep ^fset him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ^glittle rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore ^hhis height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ⁱwhen he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the fardens of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches; so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; † he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, h the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 k Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees l stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, m to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon † to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to n shake at the sound of his fall, when I o cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and p all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, q shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt. 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it. 17 It shall be brought down to hell, among all the uncircumcised nations.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, a take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, b Thou art like a young lion of the nations, c and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou earnest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and d foulest their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God; I will therefore e spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then f will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and g will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh h upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood i the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall j put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the k bright lights of heaven will I make l dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also m vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people kamazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and n they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, o the terrible of the nations, all of them:

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and ^a cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

23 ^a Whose graves are set in the sides about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which ^b caused ^{||} terror in the land of the living.

24 There is ^c Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are ^d gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, ^e which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is ^f Meshech, Tubal, and

27 ^h And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell [†] with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is ⁱ Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are [†] laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 ^k There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the ^l Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be ^m comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, ^ehe is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ (So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, ^mhe shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; ⁿif he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, ⁿwhen I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do ^tthat which is lawful and right;

15 ^fif the wicked ^prestore the pledge, ^qgive again that he had robbed, walk in ^rthe statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 ^sNone of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 ^tWhen the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and commit-teth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 ¶ Yet ye say, ^xThe way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year ^yof our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, ^zthat one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^aThe city is smitten.

22 Now ^bthe hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; ^cand my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, ^dthey that inhabit those ^ewastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, ^fAbraham was one, and he inherited the land: ^gbut we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ^hYe eat with the blood, and ⁱlift up your eyes toward your idols, and ^kshed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye ^ldefile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely ^mthey that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field ⁿwill I give to the beasts ^tto be devoured, and they that be in the forts and ^vin the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 ^pFor I will lay the land [†]most desolate, and the ^qpomp of her strength shall cease; and ^rthe mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking [†]against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and ^sspeak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And ^tthey come unto thee [†]as the people cometh, and [†]they [†]sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: ^ufor with their mouth [†]they shew much love, but ^vtheir heart goeth after their covetousness.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 11 His providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

687.

AND the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear
the word of the LORD:

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds feed themselves,
and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear
the word of the LORD:

10 Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more;
for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God;
Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures?
and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey;
and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and I will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the LORD God.

31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the LORD God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Scir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Scir, and prophesy against it.

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, O mount Scir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: since thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Scir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the LORD God; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Scir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised unto it. 16 Israel was rejected for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the LORD God; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the LORD God; I because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD God; Thus saith the LORD God to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the LORD God; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys, Thus saith the LORD God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and ^{the} wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: ^{and} ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth be-reave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, Thou land devoured up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither be-reave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 ^{Neither} will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as ^{the} uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them ^{for} the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: ^{according} to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they ^{profaned} my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity ^{for} mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not ^{this} for your sakes, O house of Israel, ^{but} for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before ^{their} eyes.

24 For ^I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: ^{from} all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and ^{lay} no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 ^{Not} for your sakes do I ^{this}, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: * I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God: * I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will * increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the * holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 15 By the uniting of two sticks, 18 is shewed the incorporation of Israel into Judah. 20 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE * hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open * valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, * thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will * cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; * and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the * wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God: * Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 * Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, * Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and * bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And I shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 * The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, * take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for * the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And * join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 * And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, * Wilt thou not shew us what thou * meanest by these?

19 * Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take * the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 * And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand * before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, * I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And * I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and * one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 * Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but * I will save them out of all their dwellings, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And * David my servant shall be king over them; and * they all shall have one shepherd: * they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 * And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their chil-

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 The army, 8 and malice of Gog. 14
God's judgment against him.

AND the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,

2 ^aSon of man, ^bset thy face against ^cGog, the land of Magog, ^dthe chief prince of ^eMeshech and Tubal, and prophecy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord
God; Behold, I am against thee, O
Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And ^eI will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, ^ffall of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and ^gLibya with them: all of them with shield and helmet:

6 ^hGomer, and all his bands; the house of ⁱTogarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

7 ^jBe thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ^kAfter many days ^lthou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, ^mand is gathered out of many people, against ⁿthe mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall ^odwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come ^plike a storm, thou shalt be ^qlike a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt ^rthink an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages: I will ^sgo to them that are at rest, that dwell ^tsafely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates.

12 ^uTo take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon ^vthe desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the ^wmidst of the land.

13 ^xSheba, and ^yDedan, and the merchants ^zof Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 ^{aa}Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God; ^{ab}In that day when my people of Israel ^{ac}dwell safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 ^{ad}And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 ^{ae}And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; ^{af}it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, ^{ag}that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time ^{ah}by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy ^{ai}and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that ^{aj}the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, ^{ak}and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the ^{al}steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ^{am}call for ^{an}a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God:
Every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will ^{ao}plead against him with ^{ap}pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and ^{aq}great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and ^{ar}sanctify myself; ^{as}and I will be known in the eyes of many nations,

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 God's judgment upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory. 11 Gog's burial in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the fowls. 23 Israel, having been plagued for their sins, shall be gathered again with eternal favour.

THEREFORE, ^a thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and ^b leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from ^c the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 ^c Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: ^d I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, ^e to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon ^f the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 ^g And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell ^h carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ⁱ So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel: and I will not let them ^j pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ^k Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God: this is the day ^l whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ^m hand-staves, and the spears, and they shall ⁿ burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down ^o any out of the forests: for they shall burn the weapons with fire: ^p and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ^q And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea; and it shall stop the ^r noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it, The valley of ^s Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ^t that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall yell ^u bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that ^v I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out ^w men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, ^x to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when ^y any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be ^z Hamonah. Thus shall they ^a cleanse the land.

17 ^b And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God; ^c Speak ^d unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, ^e Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ^f sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice ^g upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 ^h Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of ⁱ goats, of bullocks, all of them ^j fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 ^k Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, ^l with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 ^m And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and ⁿ my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 ^o So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 ^p And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ^q hid I my face from them, and ^r gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 ^s According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^t Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the ^u whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name:

26 ^v After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they ^w dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 ^x When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and ^y am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

1 The time, manner, and end of the vision.
2 The description of the east gate, 20 of the north gate, 24 of the south gate, 32 of the east gate, 36 and of the north gate, 38 Eight tables. 44 The chambers.

574.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee: for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: I declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and a handbreadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, † one over another, and † thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might † have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And † there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were † a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the † galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door posts, and † the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, † called with wood round about, † and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by † measure.

18 And it was made † with cherubim and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces:

19 * So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubim and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The † posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary: the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 † The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is † the table that is † before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were † narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was † gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries † were higher than these, † than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the court: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits.

9 And || from under these chambers was || the entry on the east side, || as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 ¶ When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate "that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw || when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 ¶ In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house;

Upon ² the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ⁷ The cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth; even the [†] bottom shall be a cubit and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the [†] edge thereof round about shall be a span; and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So [†] the altar shall be four cubits; and from [†] the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ² his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to [†] the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ² a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ⁶ without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, (and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the Lord.)

25 ¶ Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall [†] consecrate themselves,

27 ¶ And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your [†] peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince.
4 The priests reprov'd for polluting of the sanctuary. 8 Idolaters unworthy of the priest's office. 15 The sons of Zadok are accepted thereto. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary ² which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; [†] because the Lord the God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord; ⁴ he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, ⁶ behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, ² Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 ¶ In that ye have brought into my sanctuary [†] strangers, [†] uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ² my bread, ³ the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not [†] kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my [†] charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ¶ No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and they caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow which had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance; I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, for the city, and for the princes. Ordinance for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel; and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God: Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the ear, which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer.

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel: for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary.

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simpler: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days: unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

¶ Thus saith the Lord God: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, he shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord God: If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons: it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after, it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession: but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession; that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering: that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were

9 And it shall come to pass, that ev-shall live: and there shall be a very waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river com-

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-gelaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their

This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: ^h Joseph

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall meas-

20 The west side also shall be the 21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, ^r and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you:
^s and they shall be unto you as born there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

30 ¶ And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures.

31 ⁿ And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred; and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah. 8 They refusing the king's portion do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^acame Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^bpart of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^cinto the land of Shinar to the house of his god: ^dand he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^ecertain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children ^fin whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^gwhom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of ^hthe wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might ⁱstand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah:

7 ¶ Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ^jfor he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar: and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishaël, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself ^kwith the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ^lGod had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces ^m† worse liking than the children which are of your ⁿ¶ sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to ^o¶ Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^p† pulse ^q† to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, ^r¶ God gave them ^sknowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and ^t¶ Daniel had ^uunderstanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah: therefore ^v¶ stood they before the king.

20 ¶ And in all matters of ^w† wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 ¶ And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite findeth the dream. 19 He blesseth God. 24 His staying the decree is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 40 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^awhere-with his spirit was troubled, and ^bhis sleep brake from him.

2 ¶ Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astro-gers, and the sorcerers, and the Chal-deans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live forever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ⁵there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed:
therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore ^{there is} no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrotologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, b except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men
of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Ari-och made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew

the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 ¶ That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; ¶ that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision.
Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 ¶ He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee,
O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon:
he went and said thus unto him:
Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king:

28 ¶ But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days.
Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these:

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter:
and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 * But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, || but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, * and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 † Thou, O king, † sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 † This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his || thighs of brass,

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out || without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became as like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that ° no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image (became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 † This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 † Thou, O king, art a king of kings: † for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 † And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. † Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise ° another kingdom ° inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And ° the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest † the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly || broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in † the days of these kings ° shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, * which shall never be destroyed: and the † kingdom shall not be left to other people, * but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 † Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain || without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass † hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 † Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation * and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, † and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, † and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and † chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel ° sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicated a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego are accused for not worshipping the image. 13 They, being threatened, make a good confession. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 20 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up: and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Before CHRIST about 680.	you † it is commanded, ^a O people, nations, and languages, 5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, † dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: 6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour ^b be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans ^c came near, and accused the Jews. 9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, 4 O king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, hast made a de- crece, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image: 11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery fur- nace. 12 ^c There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Me- shach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, † have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. 13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it † true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego? do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well : but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed- nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^b we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.	18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. 19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar † full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Sha- drach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20 And he commanded the † most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed- nego, and to cast them into the burn- ing fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their † coats, their hosen, and their † hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burn- ing fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's † commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the † flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his † coun- sellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, Truë, O king. 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, † walking in the midst of the fire, and † they have no hurt: and the form of the fourth is like ^k the Son of God. 26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the † mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither . Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire. 27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. 28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his ser- vants that ^m trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yield- ed their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. 29 ¶ Therefore † I make a decree, That every people, nation, and lan- guage, which speak † any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Me- shach, and Abed-nego, shall be ⁿ cut	Before CHRIST about 680. † Chald. filled. † Chald. mighty of strength. † Or, mantles. † Or, turbans. † Chald. word. † Or, spark. † Or, governors. † Is. 43. 2. † Chald. there is no hurt in them. k Job. 1. 6. & Ps. 1. 7. ver. 25. † Chald. door. 1 Heb. 11. 34. m Ps. 31. 7. 8. CHAPTER IV.

1 Nebuchadnezzar confesseth God's kingdom, a master relation of his dream, which the magicians could not interpret.

8 Daniel telleth the dream. 10 He interpreteth it. 28 The story of the event.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, 1 "unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 "I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders which the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 "How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 "I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 "Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them: but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 "But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 "O Belteshazzar, I master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: and I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven:

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field: and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him: and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, if thou canst as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 "Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 "The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth:

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 "It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 "And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it: yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field: and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him:

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king:
